RIDDER WRITES OPEN LETTER TO PRESIDENT TAFT

Asserts That Country is Threatened With Industrial Disturbance Involving $285,000,000.

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—President Taft recently was led into a serious error in the closing days of the session of Congress when he changed his attitude on the print paper schedule, according to an open letter addressed to the chief executive, and signed by Herman Ridder, New York, president of the American Newspaper Publishers' Association.

Mr. Ridder's letter, written some time ago, was made public yesterday, showing its indorsement by the International and Daily Press Association. Mr. Ridder's letter follows:

To the President: The full text of your address at Winona, Minn., on the tariff bill has just come to hand. With the utmost respect we submit to your statement respecting the tariff schedule shows that you could have correctly read or understood the print paper paragraph contained, as it passed the House of Representatives.

Misled by Designing Men.

You were apparently misled by designing men into a serious blunder in the closing days of the tariff conference, they induced you to reverse your previous attitude upon print paper, and changed your notions of what the Mann Committee recommended and of what the House of Representatives had approved. The Mann Committee, after a ten months' investigation, marked by unusual thoroughness, reported that a rate of $2 would cover the difference in cost of production at home and abroad. The draft proposed absolute ly safeguarded American paper mills against the serious Canadian tangle, which your advice to the tariff conferees has since precipitated.

"The fixing of the rate on print paper at $3.75 per ton, which you advised, has decided the province of Quebec to prohibit the exportation of its pulp wood, and many American paper mills must close or move to Canada, to obtain their supplies of raw material. The country is now in a fair way for a trade war with Canada, because of your apparent failure to read correctly the Mann Committee's recommendations. We are threatened with an industrial disturbance which will involve business interchanges with Canada amounting to $285,000,000 per annum.

"We sincerely trust that you can

TO FIND A ROUTE FOR AUTOMOBILES

PATHFINDING PARTY LEFT AT AN EARLY HOUR THIS MORNING.

Party Anxious to Include Gainesville on Official Tampa-Jacksonville Auto Highway.

With a determination to select a desirable and direct road between Gainesville and Jacksonville, the first action of the Gainesville Automobile Association is to indulge in a pathfinding tour, and at 5 o'clock this morning three cars left Gainesville for that city, with a view to ascertain such a route.

The party occupied three cars—Judge Syd L. Carter in his E. M. F. touring car, Geo. I. Daig in his big Mitchell, and A. M. Cushman, in his Buick Roadster 10. These gentlemen were accompanied by Messrs. H. E. Taylor, A. R. Jones and Clyde L. Carter, members of the Association, with Frank Myers and Sam Bennett as chauffeurs, and Ed Allen, mechanic, all of whom are enthusiastic automobilists.

In speaking of the trip yesterday, Secretary Cushman stated that the route selected is via Starke and Highland, and that the party did not anticipate any serious trouble in selecting a desirable and direct road, and one which will be adopted as part of the official highway between Jacksonville and Tampa, which is now being agitated by autoists throughout the State.

The association is now in communication with the Tampa Auto Club in the matter of selecting a road, and have promised the Tampa club that everything would be done to make a perfect and direct highway from the Marion county line to Jacksonville, via this city.

Seventy-five signs have been ordered, and later another trip will be made, when the roadway will be blazed and posted.

This commendable and public-spirited enterprise on the part of the Gainesville Automobile Association, will undoubtedly result in the selection of the Gainesville route as the one for general use by the tourists and pleasure seekers on their way to Tampa and the West Coast throughout the season, which will naturally mean a great deal for this city and section.

FRANK GOULD'S CHILDREN

TO MAKE HOME WITH AUNT.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—It is said by an intimate friend of the Gould family that negotiations are in progress with a view to the surrendering of the children of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jay Gould to their aunt, Miss Helen Gould, to be reared under her care. Under the terms of the decree of divorce granted to Mrs. Frank Gould a few months ago, Frank Gould was to have the custody of the children, Helen, largest and Dorothy, from May to November, while the mother, Mrs. Helen Kelley Gould, was to have them under her care from December until April of each year.

find some method of rectifying the mistake into which you were led. We fully appreciate the difficulties and responsibilities of your exalted office, and we believe you are trying to do the best you can. We know that you must rely upon others for your information. We feel that every citizen is under obligation to help you. Therefore, we write this letter to you. Yours respectfully, Herman Ridder, president American Newspaper Publishers' Association."

The Seaboard Air Line will inaugurate a through train between Jacksonville and New York on November 7th. This will make three through trains daily between these two cities.

EFFORT TO BE MADE TO CURTAIL PRODUCTION

Increase in Cost of Raw Material Principal Reason Advanced For the Movement.

BOSTON, Oct. 20.—A gigantic movement is in progress throughout the leading cotton textile districts of the world looking toward a general curtailment of production during the remaining months of this year and during 1910. The principal reasons advanced for the movement are the gradual increase in the cost of raw material in the Southern States and in Egypt and the failure of the dry goods markets to respond in a way which would assure continuous profit to manufacturers during the next twelve months.

The curtailment movement had its inception in Lancashire, the greatest cotton-goods producing district in the world. In Lancashire the yarn spinners have been running their mills on short time for two months, and recently many other English mill owners voted to shut down two days each week until November 1st.

On September 15 the Arkwright Club of Boston, representing 14,000,000 out of the 17,000,000 spindles in New England, sent out to all the cotton mills in this district, which is second in the industry to Lancashire, forms of an agreement for signatures for a curtailment. The investigations of the executive committee of this club convinced it that no difficulty would be experienced in securing signatures representing 7,000,000 spindles.

The proposition calls for the suspension of work for 224 working hours between the date of the agreement and August 1, 1910, to become effective when no less than 7,000,000 spindles have been signed up.

Reports from different sections of New England indicate that the proposition of the Arkwright Club is meeting with an encouraging response. Such a curtailment, however, is not likely to become effective in this State in the immediate future, as many of the mills that will sign an agreement will be unable to fill present orders without steady running until well into January.

The Rhode Island and Fall River manufacturers are, as a rule, willing to curtail production, provided that they are not called upon to figuratively "hold the umbrella" for other sections of New England, or, in other words, to withhold goods while outside centers continue to run in full.

The curtailment movement is of great interest in New England and other places, where the operatives have been refused a restoration of a 10 per cent cut in wages made in

Daughters of Confederacy in Convention at Houston

HOUSTON, Tex., Oct. 20.—With the same spirit that made possible the accomplishment of magnificent achievements during the dreary days between 1861 and 1865, women of the Southland, who revere the memories of the men and women of that period, many of them actual participants in the scenes not chronicled in history—gathered in Houston yesterday for the purpose of reviewing the work of the year in the ranks of the United Daughters of the Confederacy.

A heavy rain during the night broke down much of the mass of flags and bunting displayed over the city in welcome to the Daughters, but it did not dampen the spirits of the delegates—200 in number—who gathered from thirty-two States to attend the opening general sessions of the sixteenth annual convention.

The sessions began with addresses of welcome by the city officials and Tax Commissioner Dashiell on behalf of Governor Campbell, who was unable to be present. The day was given over to social features, interspersed with a little business routine. A beautiful feature of the day was the presentation to Mrs. Cornelia Branch Stone of Galveston, the president-general, of a magnificent presidential general's jewel, the pendant star being set with diamonds. Following this huge bouquets of flowers were brought to the platform, tokens of the love of the Daughters for their president-general. Soon the plain platform was turned into a bower of flowers and color.

At the afternoon session the report of the committee on credentials was read, which was marked by the absence of any contest.

The feature of the day proved to be the unveiling in the afternoon of the monument to Terry's Rangers. The boulder is a huge rough hewn shaft and bears on one side a flag with the inscription: "In memory of Terry's Texas Rangers, 1861-65. Erected by E. Bennett Bates Auxiliary to Oran M. Roberts Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, October 19, 1909."

The speakers were Mrs. Cornelius Branch Stone, Col. Philip Hall and Miss Katie Daffin.

Keen contest has developed for the office of president-general, with six candidates in the field. Texas will not ask the re-election of Mrs. Stone.

Virginia was the first State to make a bid for the next convention, the city of Richmond asking for the honor. Little Rock, Ark., and Wilmington, N. C., are also after the next convention.

Cats Are To Be Regularly Employed in Post Offices

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—Postmaster-General Hitchcock has decided that cats should be regularly employed in postoffices throughout the country. The reason for this is that rats are doing considerable damage to letters of the department's property and something must be done immediately to exterminate the rodents.

During the present fiscal year $1,350 for "cat meat" will be expended by the Postoffice Department. Cats who would like jobs with Mr. Hitchcock will have to pass a civil service examination, which will consist of showing whether they are good rat killers or not.

Superintendent Holloway Faces New Proposition

ST. AUGUSTINE, Oct. 20.—For the first time in the history of this county a full-blooded Chinese child has applied for admission to enter the public school and the officials of the school board are up against a proposition that is too delicate to decide without due consideration.

The little mite from the Flowery Kingdom is 12 years of age and rejoices in the name of Wong W. Joe. He is of the middle-class Chinese, and is here with his cousin, Joe, who operates a laundry and store here. He expressed a desire to go to school and his cousin made formal application for his admission to Prof. Boone, the principal of the high school. Mr. Boone not being informed on the status of Orientals here, referred the question to the school board through Superintendent Pinkham. The school board took the matter under advisement and finally decided that action in this case will establish a precedent, therefore referred it to State Superintendent Holloway, through Superintendent Pinkham.

Wong is a bright little fellow, clean as if he had been daily subjected to the same treatment given boiled shirts in the laundry of his cousin. There is no prejudice against him or his race, but as yet the sparse Chinese population would not incur any racial feeling. In time the Chinese may be as numerous here as on the Pacific Slope, in which case the race line would probably be drawn. The school board here decided to avoid any mistake in referring the matter to headquarters. Members of the school board are of the opinion that the boy will be admitted, but in the event of an increase in the Chinese population separate schools or instructors will be provided for them.

Women Horribly Mangled Under Switch Engine

COLUMBUS, Ga., Oct. 20.—Mrs. W. O. Munroe and Mrs. C. G. Strickland were killed and another woman was seriously injured by a Central of Georgia switch engine that ran into and demolished the street car in the railroad yards. The motorman and conductor were unhurt.

Mrs. Strickland jumped when the crash came and was caught under a freight car and horribly mangled. Her husband, who was summoned from his work, identified her immediately when shown her face, but was not permitted to see her body because of its terrible mutilation.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Munroe and M-

the Melvia Temple, daughter of a neighbor, boarded the car just a block from the scene of the accident. When he saw that a collision would occur, he seized his wife and the little girl and tried to help them to jump to safety. He and the little girl cleared the wreckage, but his wife was caught under the street car. Miss Stella Knowles sprained her ankle in jumping from the car.

The members of both train crews were released last night under bond. Joe Palmer, the railroad flagman at the crossing where the collision occurred, was captured after a lively chase by the officers.

FOR GOOD ROADS A CLUB IS FORMED

ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING OF AUTOMOBILISTS TUESDAY NIGHT.

Gainesville Automobile Association Organized and Launched in Behalf of Better Roadways.

Pursuant to call, a large and enthusiastic meeting of the automobile owners and drivers was held at the council chamber Tuesday night for the purpose of organizing an association looking toward the improvement of the roads and the construction of new ones.

The majority of automobilists were present, and others who were unable to be there sent word of their interest in the movement, and their intention to enlist their hearty support in the venture. Among these were Dr. C. L. Carter, B. K. Thrower, Jr., H. E. Taylor, J. W. Blanding, Dr. H. L. Montgomery, Frank B. Myers. These gentlemen signified their wish to become members of the organization.

A temporary organization was effected by the election of Judge Syd L. Carter president and A. M. Cushman secretary, after which a set of by-laws were presented and upon motion adopted.

After the adoption of the by-laws, the organization was made permanent, and is to be known as the Gainesville Automobile Association of Gainesville, Florida.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing term:

Syd L. Carter, president; M. H. DePass, vice-president; A. M. Cushman, secretary; H. E. Taylor, treasurer; Dr. E. Lartigue, Geo. I. Doig, G. H. Kelley, directors.

On motion of Dr. E. Lartigue, it was voted that the association raise funds, post and blaze the best route from Gainesville to Jacksonville.

On motion of Geo. I. Doig, the secretary was instructed to write the Tampa Automobile Club that this association was willing, and would post, blaze and make passable the best route between this city and Jacksonville, provided the said club would assure this association that it would be selected as the official route between Tampa and Jacksonville.

On motion it was ordered that if the Tampa club accepts offer of the association that the president appoint a committee to raise funds and proceed with the work.

On motion the president was authorized and instructed to confer with the Duval county commissioners, or other authorities, in regard to road to this city, or to the Bradford county line.

After a number of enthusiastic remarks by several present, the meeting adjourned subject to the call of the president.

This is the proper step, as it means the beginning of an organized movement for more and better roads throughout the entire county.

The Manhattan Theatre Co.

A treat is in store for theatre patrons when the famous Manhattan Theatre Co. makes its debut on the local stage tonight. They come heralded as one of the best stock organizations that ever toured the Southeast, inasmuch as the cast includes such well-known players as Gordon Hamilton, Al Massey, Ella Kramer, Bessie Kingdon, Earl Higley and six others. They have an extensive repertoire of plays from which are selected only those of the highest calibre. The play of "Wyoming," new to this territory, is but a sample. A scenic equipment of 90 pieces of scenery, newly painted by the company's scenic artist, is carried by the Manchattans. During their stay new and appropriate scenery for every act of every play will be used and correct costuming is only another feature. High-class vaudeville between the acts makes it a continuous show, and taken as a whole the Manhattan bid fair to assume the leading place among the popular-priced shows in this territory as they have in the other sections visited.

They will play here tonight, also Friday and Saturday nights.

1908. It was suggested that if the New Bedford manufacturers are in sympathy with the 30-day closing movement the effect of a strike in that city would be partially nullified.

The curtailment has also been taken up by the Southern cotton-mill owners. Yesterday the board of governors of the American Cotton Manufacturers' Association, at a meeting in Charlotte, N. C., adopted resolutions setting forth their claim that the present disparity between the price of cotton and cotton goods precludes the possibility of the successful operation of Southern mills. A committee was appointed to formulate a curtailment agreement.

"DRAW AT SIGHT" WERE INSTRUCTIONS

TO THE MAYOR OF KEY WEST
WEDNESDAY.

Through Efforts of Noble Woman, Subscription List Started by The Sun Considerably Increased.

With a generosity commendable the people of Gainesville have come to the relief of their storm-stricken brothers of Key West, and the result is that the sum of $63.70 net was placed on deposit in the First National Bank of Gainesville Wednesday, and a wire to the mayor of the Island City instructing him to draw at sight for that amount was forwarded. Thus Gainesville has done her share towards relieving the suffering of the people of that stricken city.

To the charitable energy of Mrs. Lina Jones, who undertook the matter of raising subscriptions, great credit is due, for if it had not been for the efforts of this good woman, there would probably have been nothing accomplished; but Mrs. Jones, reading the plea in The Sun, generously assumed the responsibility of making a canvass, with very gratifying results, as is shown in the list below.

In addition to the amount raised by The Sun, to which a cash contribution of $2 was added during Wednesday, Mrs. Jones handed in the following list, accompanied by the cash:

The Sternbergs Return.

Mrs. S. Sternberg and children, Misses Katie and Pearl, and Masters Abraham and George, arrived in the city yesterday to join Mr. Sternberg, who has been here for several days. They come direct from New York, where they have resided since leaving here about three years ago.

Mr. Sternberg was for several years engaged in the mercantile business here, later removing to New York, where he entered the manufacture of ladies' skirts. He has returned to his "first love," however, and says he will be content to stand behind the counter on Wall street, where he has again opened, and enjoy the friendship of the people of Gainesville and Alachua county for the remainder of his life. Friends are glad to welcome the family back again.

Casket manufacturers, in convention at Cincinnati, Ohio, deplored the fact that the cost of dying had not kept pace with the increased cost of living. Should the cost of living go on increasing, there will be nothing left for the undertakers.

The Sun is a strong believer in probation sentences for violators of the law for the first offence. A jail sentence at hard labor, with a parole of the culprit pending good behavior, will do more to deter people from committing crime the second time than the heaviest fine that could be imposed.

J. H. Reese says in The Manufacturers' Record of Baltimore that there are 3,000,000 acres of land in the Everglades "with a covering of grass only, which can be burned off, costing nothing to clear it." And The Times-Union Short Talks man is so cruel as to remark that "now would be a good time to burn it."

Tuesday's special election to fill the vacancy in the office of marshal was a good natured affair. Both the candidates were good, clean men, and refrained from any mud-slinging at each other. It is our honest opinion that Chas. M. Dell will fill the office with credit to himself and satisfaction of his friends. He is capable and honest, and will make a good officer.

This is the season of the year to beware of advertising fakirs who make it their business to flitch Florida people during the winter months. The Tampa Chamber of Commerce has secured the agreement of the business men of that city not to patronize any advertising scheme which has not the written endorsement of the chairman and secretary of the publicity committee. The Gainesville Board of Trade should do something along the same line.

The City Council should provide a fund for charitable purposes, no part of which should be expended except upon the approval of the committee on charities. It is a disgrace to the city that a subscription list has to be carried around to aid those who are in absolute need. Then again, many people have been imposed upon so often that they do not know whether they are really contributing to a worthy subject or an impostor. It is the city's business to care for its poor, and the annual budget should contain an appropriation for that purpose.

Both the city of Buffalo and the county of Sussex, N. J., will vote this fall on the question of a commission government modeled after the Des Moines plan. It is claimed that in less than two years under this form of government, Des Moines has built more walks, pavements, and bridges than ever before, and it is financially $224,000 better off than the year before the commission form of government began, and this without any increase of taxation. This shows what can be done when a municipality is run on the same lines as a business corporation.

ROSIN AND TURPENTINE.

Rosin and turpentine, known technically as naval stores from the fact that for many years their principal uses were maritime, are produced from two species of Southern pine, the long leaf and the Cuban, but it is quite probable that a number of other species will be employed within the next twenty-five years. The crop of naval stores, including four and a quarter million pounds of rosin and sixteen and a quarter million casks of spirits of turpentine, has an approximate annual value to those engaged in it of at least thirty million dollars. For how many centuries commercial use has been made of the sap of the pine cannot be determined with any degree of assurance, but the custom was general in South France at the time of the invasion of England by the Spanish Armada. For many years the industry was confined to the south of France and Austria, where it still flourishes on a small scale, and it was not until a hundred years ago that intelligent effort was made to establish it on this continent. For fifty years or so the Carolinas and Virginias were the chief turpentine-producing States, but with the opening up of the pine forests of Georgia the scene of operations was gradually shifted Southward, until before very long Georgia had become the center of the industry. At the present time Florida is in the lead, with Georgia and Alabama a close second and third. The depletion of Florida's forests, however, is gradually extending the turpentine area westward, and it is quite possible in twenty-five years' time Louisiana, Mississippi and Texas will be in the lead.

One million dollars to promote the cause of universal peace has been set aside by Edwin Ginn, the Boston publisher. For the remaining years of his life Mr. Ginn is to contribute $50,000 annually to the peace cause. Upon his death the million dollars will become available. This was announced by Mr. Ginn. The million dollar fund will probably be greatly swelled before long. Prominent business men are working with Mr. Ginn in the cause. "Andrew Carnegie," he said, "is interested in my plans, and will undoubtedly give a handsome sum to the projector." Mr. Ginn's gift is the first practical step in a business movement for world peace started by the Boston publisher a year ago. He has worked independently for the professional peace advocate and has tried to disassociate his project from that of the platform peace workers.

The biggest year of earnings of American railroads, which it is predicted will be eclipsed this year, produced $2,650,000,000 of gross earnings. According to authoritative statistics of this amount 40 per cent went directly to workingmen in wages. Thirty per cent more was expended for materials, a considerable part of which was labor cost. The Government required three per cent for taxes. Interest and dividends, the portion of capital, amounted to 22 per cent, and a surplus of five per cent was left for accumulation, a considerable part of which was destined to be used for future construction.

The Coast Line shops at St. Petersburg will be moved to a more desirable location and many improvements made. The new plans call for a blacksmith and machine shop, oil house, sand dryer, office store room and roundhouse, which will be inside the shop yard. A new turntable, capable of handling the largest locomotives, will also be installed.

PRICE OF BROOM CORN

HIGHEST EVER KNOWN.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 20.—The highest prices ever known are being paid for broom corn this year. Brooms that sold a year ago for 25 cents now cost 45 and 50. While the yield in the Kansas-Oklahoma broom corn district has been unusually large, there seems to have been a crop failure in other districts, and buyers are flocking here for their supplies. Last week as high as $172.50 a ton was paid for first quality broom, but this week the price has advanced to $227.50. John Roverton paid that price a ton for the whole crop of J. G. Cox of Texhoma, Okla. At those prices broom corn will bring more than $100 an acre profit on land which is scarcely fit for anything else. Broom corn usually is grown in the sandhills district, which receives only a little rain and which will not grow common crops without irrigation.

OWEN WILL KNOW HIS FATE TUESDAY

TWICE CONDEMNED TO DIE, MAN
STILL ENJOYS LIFE.

Attorneys Baker and Broome Received Notice That Argument for New Trial Will Be Heard Tuesday.

On Tuesday, October 26th, R. H. Owen, tried and convicted for the murder of R. L. Smith in the western section of the county some time ago, who was sentenced to be hanged on July 23rd, but who was granted a reprieve upon a writ of error, will know his fate, as Attorneys Baker and Broome, representing the condemned man, have been notified by Attorney-General Trammell that the motion for new trial will be argued on that date, at 10 o'clock in the morning, before the supreme court in Tallahassee. This hearing will be final, and Attorney-General Trammell will insist that the ruling and verdict of the lower, or circuit court, be sustained.

The facts and evidence as presented in this case are yet fresh in the minds of the people, the case having been heard at the last spring term of the circuit court in and for Alachua county, and having attracted considerable attention, as Owen was the first white man ever convicted and sentenced to be legally hung in Alachua county.

Friday, July 9th, was the day first set for the execution, and the gallows had been erected, the rope stretched and everything was in readiness when, through the efforts of his attorneys, the man was granted a reprieve of two weeks, extending the date to Friday, July 23rd. Again everything was in readiness, but in the meantime the faithful attorneys for the condemned man worked diligently in his behalf, and the night preceding the day set the second time for the execution, another stay of execution was received upon a writ of error. At the time feeling was high, and it was thought advisable to take the man to Jacksonville to prevent probable violence. Since that date Owen has been confined in the Duval county jail, pending the argument for a new trial, as above stated.

The hearing was originally set for October 19th.

For some time prior to the date set

...SYRUP MAKING...

By C. K. McQuarrie, Florida Agri. Experiment Station
Press Bulletin No. 127

To be able to produce the best grade of syrup, two things are essential—an evaporator of the proper type, and a thorough skimming of the juice during the evaporating process.

The Evaporator

The evaporators on the market, such as the Cook pan and others, do not afford enough skimming surface to enable one to keep the juice well skimmed while it is evaporating. The best style of evaporator is a long pan, about eighteen feet in length and two feet in width, made of 2 by 6 dressed lumber, either poplar or cypress, with No. 22 galvanized sheet-iron for a bottom. It should be divided into three sections, with gates in the divisions to allow the juice to be passed on as it goes through the cooking process. The first of these sections should be eight feet long; the second, six feet; and the third, four feet. The evaporator should be laid on a brick arch, constructed so that the fire can be used from one end to the other. An evaporator of this kind can be made at home by any one handy with tools, and costs considerably less than a bought one.

Skimming

When the juice begins to heat in the first or largest section of the evaporator, a dense blanket of dark greenish color will begin rising to the surface. This blanket must be removed before the juice boils, and on its removal depends the quality of the syrup later on; for if this scum is allowed to mix with the boiling juice, the syrup will be cloudy and off flavor.

The old-time perforated skimmer is not a good skimming tool, because it does not skim clean, and allows most of what should be removed to fall back into the boiling juice. The best kind of skimmer is made from a piece of dressed lumber about fourteen inches square, fitted with a handle like a mortar board. In using this skimming board, the best way is to lay it flat on top of the scum in the pan. The scum will adhere to the board and can be removed without any of it falling back. By using a piece of lath to scrape the scum off the board into the skimmings barrel, we can make a perfect job of this, the most important part of the syrup making. This operation should be kept up all the time, and every particle of scum removed as it rises to the surface during the boiling process. As the juice evaporates and thickens, it should be passed on to the second compartment, where most of the boiling should be done. When near completion, it is run into the last section, where it is finished and tested for density.

Density of the Syrup

To get a uniform density we must use a hydrometer. Without this tool we can not be sure that all our batches are alike in density. Thirty-four degrees, while hot, is generally recognized as the standard of density for Florida cane syrup. When it comes near that point we must use precaution that it does not get too thick; for in the later stages evaporation is very rapid, and if a strong fire is under the pan there is some danger of burning as the syrup thickens. To help prevent this we have to regulate the fire and keep it low, when ready to run off a batch.

To facilitate running off the syrup, a spout should be provided on the side of the evaporator, with a tight gate on it, the same as in the divisions between the sections. When the syrup is ready, it should be run off through a fine woolen blanket, so as to insure perfect clearness, into a galvanized tub. It must be put in the packages provided for it, as soon as possible, while still hot.

The Best Package

High-grade syrup should never be put in barrels and very little of it in cans. Glass is the ideal package, and the demand of the market is for glass. A flat-shaped quart bottle is the best. A neat attractive label should be used, which will add materially to the looks of the syrup and help to sell it.

for his execution, Owen was either sick or feigned illness, but the change to the Duval county jail seemed to have a most beneficial effect upon his physical condition.

EDUCATIONAL RALLY
WAS GRAND SUCCESSGOOD CROWD PRESENT TO HEAR
ADDRESSES AT COURT HOUSE.Practical Educators Talked Along Practical Lines, and All Present Felt Benefited.

According to announcement, the Alachua County School Improvement Association held a meeting at the court house Tuesday night, when many interested in education had the pleasure of hearing some most excellent addresses along these lines by speakers who, being educators themselves, handled the subject in a clever and practical manner. Even Congressman Frank Clark, who made the principal talk of the evening, stated that at the time he earned his living by teaching a country school in South Florida, hence was in a position to speak more intelligently upon what was considered one of the most important topics in the whole country at this time—the education of the children. The meeting was called to order by Prof. W. H. Cassels, principal of the Gainesville Graded and High School, who presided throughout the evening. Prof. Cassels indulged in a talk of possibly a half hour, every moment of which was full of interest and good practical suggestions. At the close of his remarks he introduced Prof. Thaxton, of the University staff, who made a few brief but timely remarks, which were well received.

Frank Clark's Address.

At the conclusion of Prof. Thaxton's remarks the presiding officer, in a neat and clever manner, presented Congressman Frank Clark, which was a signal of applause as that gentleman arose and faced the audience.

Col. Clark, who is one of the most pleasing speakers in the State, seemed at his best upon this occasion, and for nearly an hour his remarks were listened to with the closest attention. The speaker said many good things, but insisted that the most important matter for consideration in this progressive age was the construction of good roads and a rural system of telephones. "I want to see the day when this grand country of ours will be a network of hard roads and telegraph lines," he said, "for that means we will have good schools—they are bound to result from good roads, a generous telephone system, and other modern improvements, for these are instruments of education in themselves; and the day we see them, that day we will see a consolidation of small schools into large ones, which means the employment of more efficient instructors."

Mr. Clark said he used to earn a living teaching a country school in South Florida, and he realized keenly

For Women—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Noah, Ky. — "I was passing through the Change of Life and suffered from headaches, nervous prostration, and hemorrhages."

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me well and strong, so that I can do all my housework, and attend to the store and post-office, and feel much younger than I really am."

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the most successful remedy for all kinds of female troubles, and I feel that I can never praise it enough." — Mrs. Lizzie Holland, Noah, Ky.

The Change of Life is the most critical period of a woman's existence, and neglect of health at this time invites disease and pain.

Women everywhere should remember that there is no other remedy known to medicine that will so successfully carry women through this trying period as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs.

For 30 years it has been curing women from the worst forms of female ills—inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, and nervous prostration.

If you would like special advice about your case write a confidential letter to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

the disadvantages of the average teacher, especially in the country school, where disadvantageous conditions frequently exist of which the patrons or the public know nothing. He concluded his remarks by appealing to patrons to do their share towards making the teacher and the school a success.

Have Started to Work.

The ladies comprising this association, of which Mrs. J. E. Futch is president, have already begun work, and will beautify and improve the local school grounds. It is the intention of the association to organize auxiliary societies throughout the county, and it is safe to assert that this will prove of lasting benefit and value to the school system throughout the county.

Slightly Colder With Snow.

When you see that kind of weather forecast you know that rheumatism weather is at hand. Get ready for it now by getting a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment. Finest thing made for rheumatism, chilblains, frost bite, sore and stiff joints and muscles, all aches and pains. 25c, 50c and $1.00 a bottle. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Had a Picnic.

The "overflow" pupils of the sixth and eighth grades, Gainesville Graded and High School, participated in an enjoyable ride to Hogtown creek yesterday afternoon, being chaperoned by Miss Kate Tomkies, one of the efficient teachers.

There were quite a number, and all who went report "a great big time." Miss Tomkies is quite a favorite among the pupils.

A Shaking Up

May all be very well so far as the trusts are concerned, but not when it comes to chills and fever and malaria. Quit the quinine and take a real cure—Ballard's Herbine. Contains no harmful drugs and is as certain as taxes. If it doesn't cure, you get your money back. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

A SHORT STORY

"The gilded rule," murmured the secretary, sighing down a growing anger, and thumping the leaves of his notebook mechanically. "The pedestal of dollars and cents."

He strove, in spite of himself, to catch that look of the other day, so fleeting and yet so full of promise. But now all responsiveness was blotted into a cold, measure stare, as she stood talking with her father.

"A gentleman, sir." It was one of the clerks in the outer office who spoke. "Don't go, Grace. I'll see who it is." And the broker disappeared behind the frosted door. The secretary caught his breath at this unexpected opportunity, and sought in the recess of his brain for some remark with which to open the conversation. The girl was gazing at the deep droop of a sagging cloud that was moving across the bit of window-framed sky.

"A doubtful day," he hazarded, as though following her thoughts. "Yes." There was a note of abrupt, cold finality that precluded further conversation. The girl was gazing at the window still. The face of the secretary set into a tense, hurt expression. The door leading into the private office opened again. "Mr. Bragdon, will you kindly step here a moment?" The broker's voice was gravely stern.

Wonderingly, the secretary rose and slowly entered the outer office. The sneering, silent contempt of the entire force met his gaze. "Mr. Bragdon, you have been in my employ for sometime, and—" smoothing out a tremulous agitation—"I trusted you. My business secrets were yours. How have you repaid my faith? By selling that information to my rivals?" "Mr. Atherton, I—" "Stop! Don't deny it; Langdon has absolute proof."

"Langdon is mistaken." "Langdon is never mistaken. Don't bluff, for I've found you out, you contemptible—" "Father!"

The girl stood on the threshold, flushed with eagerness of her defence. Her bosom heaved; her body quivered with an intense agitation. All the artificial barriers of sex and class distinction were swept aside. The true woman stood revealed. For one breathless moment she paused and then hastened impetuously to the side of the accused.

"Grace! Come away from that scoundrel!" "Father!" The pleading note was imbedded in an unshaken resolution. Her arms were outstretched, her eyes beseeched, but she remained as though rooted to the spot. Sheer anger turned the broker's face a chalky pallor. He tried to speak, but the excess of his emotion choked him. At last with a rasping snarl, he pointed to the outer door. The two went out in silence; the man dazed at the accusation, yet even now dimly conscious of a new joy creeping through his stupor; the girl strong and proud in her love. "See," she whispered suddenly, pointing through the corridor window at the crimson glow of the dying sun, which seemed to shape the portals of some unknown paradise and hold them invitingly as a hidden refuge to the lovers. "The cloud has gone. This is a promise." They were intently watching the colors melt into a paler, more delicate hue, when a door swung open at the further end of the corridor.

"A note for you, Mr. Bragdon." The clerk's voice was one of abject apology. The secretary's fingers trembled as he straightened the folds in the paper and read, "Langdon is mistaken. Forgive me." "The promise is fulfilled," he whispered, as he bent over her.

The Value of Good Digestion

Is easy to figure if you know what your stomach is worth. Kodol keeps the stomach at par value, by insuring good digestion. Kodol cures Dyspepsia.

Kodol insures good digestion by absolutely duplicating Nature's normal process, in perfectly digesting all food taken into the stomach.

While Kodol is doing this, the stomach is resting—and becoming strong and healthy. A strong and healthy stomach guarantees a sound and active brain.

The man with a sound stomach—a stomach that is doing for the body just what Nature intended it to do—is the man who is always prepared for any emergency. He is "there with the goods."

The man with a sick stomach, is a man sick all over. When the stomach is irritated by undigested food, the blood and heart are directly affected. Then dullness, unnatural sleepiness, sick-headaches, vertigo and fainting spells, and even serious brain trouble develop. Kodol will prevent these.

Spurring the stomach and brain to special effort by "tonics" as "stimulants" doesn't cure anything, or accomplish any good. Neither does dieting. Indigestion and the serious ailments which it induces can be averted and corrected only by natural means.

Kodol supplies this natural means. It performs the stomach's work for it—just as the stomach should perform it—while the stomach takes a little rest, "for the stomach's sake."

Our Guarantee

Go to your druggist today and get a dollar bottle. Then after you have used the entire contents of the bottle if you can honestly say, that it has not done you any good, return the bottle to the druggist and he will refund your money without question or delay. CAUSES SICKNESS

Good Health Impossible With a Disordered Stomach.

There is nothing that will create sickness or cause more trouble than a disordered stomach, and many people daily contract serious maladies simply through disregard or abuse of the stomach.

We urge everyone suffering from any stomach derangement, indigestion or dyspepsia, whether acute or chronic, to try Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, with the distinct understanding that we will refund their money without question or formality, if after reasonable use of this medicine they are not satisfied with the results. We recommend them to our customers every day, and have yet to hear of anyone who has not been benefited by them. Three sizes, 25c, 50c and $1.00 a box. Sold in Gainesville only at our store—The Rexall Store. J. W. McCollum & Co., corner East Main and Union streets.

Sam T. Dell, the clever and successful traveling representative of the Hartsfield Grocery Company, has returned from a trip through the West End.

Mac Kennedy of High Springs, one of the valued employees of the roadway department of the Atlantic Coast Line, was among those who spent yesterday in this city.

Chas. J. Rogero of Palatka, one of the most widely-known commercial travelers in this section of the State, left yesterday for Ocala, after a brief visit to this city in the interest of his house.

A. M. Cushman, Col. I. E. Webster and George Dayenport made a trip to Newberry Tuesday in the former's Buick, and enjoyed the ride immensely. The party left here at 8:45 a. m. returning a few minutes before noon.

W. M. VanSickel of Eaton, Ga., has arrived in the city. Mr. VanSickel is a photographer, and if a suitable building can be secured here he proposes to make his future home in Gainesville, which he declares to be one of the best little cities he has ever visited. His family will arrive in a few days.

Roland R. Duke, a well-known young man of Santa Fe, was in the city yesterday, having come to consult Dr. Alderman in regard to some dental work. He is a son of Hon. T. A. Duke, for many years a member of the school board, and last term a representative in the lower house of Florida Legislature from Alachua county.

Most women are troubled with kidney complaint, and you know very many serious and even fatal diseases result from these neglected kidney troubles. If you will take DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills as directed, you may be confident of good results. Try them and see how really good they are. Beware of imitations, pills that are intended to deceive you. Be sure you get DeWitt's. Sold by all druggists.

Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Callison of Spring Park Farm favored Gainesville with a visit yesterday.

Captain H. C. Parker, the veteran merchant of LaCrosse, was transacting business in this city yesterday.

The regular monthly business meeting of Kirby Smith Chapter, which was postponed on account of sickness, will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. H. H. McCreary. All members should be present.

John F. Seagle is at home again, after a couple of months spent in Atlanta, and points in Arkansas. Friends of Mr. Seagle will regret to learn that he has been in ill health during the summer, and went with the hope that the change would prove beneficial.

For a clear head, a stout heart and strong mind, DeWitt's Little Early Risers, gentle, safe, easy, pleasant, little pills. DeWitt's Carbollized Witch Hazel Salve is unequalled for anything where a salve is needed, and is especially good for Piles. Sold by all druggists.

Friends of Mrs. S. H. Hall, who has been quite ill at her home on North Garden street for the past few days, will regret to learn that her recovery is not as rapid as was expected, but it is hoped that she will continue to improve until she has regained her normal health.

L. W. Fennell, after a brief visit to this city, where he came to cast his ballot in the special municipal election Tuesday, returned to Hawthorn yesterday. Mr. Fennell's numerous friends will be glad to learn that his health is better now than for some time.

Trainmaster A. I. Pooser of the Atlantic Coast Line returned yesterday from St. Petersburg and other points in South Florida, where he has been for the past few days on official business. Mr. Pooser says the orange movement from the section visited is quite heavy now, necessitating extra train service.

You need not be troubled in any way with the stomach, if you will simply take Kodol at those times when you feel that you need it. Kodol is guaranteed to relieve you. If it fails your money will be refunded to you by the druggists from whom you purchase it. Try it today on this guarantee. Sold by all druggists.

Rev. T. J. Nixon of Ocala, presiding elder of the Gainesville district, M. E. Church, South, passed through the city yesterday en route to Cedar Key, where the quarterly conference will be held today. Dr. Nixon was for four years pastor of the First Methodist church in this city, and is quite popular here.

Mrs. J. M. Dell, Jr., has returned from Ocala, where she has been for the past few days. Mrs. Dell was summoned to that city on account of the illness of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Liddon, also her sister, Miss Iola Liddon, all of whom were quite sick. Friends will be pleased at the information that their condition is very much improved.

Deputy Sheriff Wynne of Newberry was in the city yesterday, having come to bring Lillie Belle Johnson, a negro woman convicted in Justice Carter's court upon a charge of malicious mischief, and sentenced to four months in the "gang." The woman took away and rode a horse belonging to Joe Kennedy, another negro, without the owner's permission, and it was for this that the warrant was sworn out against her.

Among the prominent out-of-town folks who spent yesterday in this city was W. A. Strickland of Paradise, who owns and operates one of the most successful farms in the county. Mr. Strickland states that he will begin his annual cane-grinding about November 20th. The crop will fall a little short this season, but he declares that this will not prevent his friends coming out and "filling up" on juice, and he extends an invitation. Mr. Strickland is master of one of the most hospitable homes in the county, and an invitation to his house means an invitation for a good time.

HON. FRANK CLARK HAS STRONG ENDORSEMENT

Jacksonville Floridian Admires Him For Having Manhood to Come Out and Tell the Truth.

We fail to see why so many papers in other districts should be such delight in throwing stones at the Hon. Frank Clark, the present congressman from this district.

While there is now, and has been evidence for the past thirteen years, a very conspicuous figure in the forums of our party by the name of BRYAN, and while we have madly and blindly followed him through hell or woe for nearly two decades, is it not also true that Mr. Bryan is the only Democrat in the Democratic party?

The wildest Populist in the West could not possibly have been a more enthusiastic supporter of this brilliant Westerner than many of us in the South.

But has it ever occurred to you that Mr. Bryan's idols were never SPECIAL FRIENDS OF THE SOUTH?

IF PRESIDENT LINCOLN WAS, HE HAD A MIGHTY POOR WAY OF SHOWING IT.

When why should the SOUTH be giving obeisance to the sheaves of Western Joseph?

Have we not already done our part? And please explain to us why we should continue to worship at the shrine of one WHOSE INTERESTS ARE NOT OUR INTERESTS?

Poor old General Hancock, away back in 1880—in our own opinion—made the antemortem statement for the Democratic party when he said "THE TARIFF IS A LOCAL ISSUE!" Someone has said that "Candor is a vice as well as a virtue." But we fail to see any vice in telling the truth.

In times when the South stood sorely in need of friends we cannot recall the moment anyone from Mr. Bryan's home of Nebraska ever came to her rescue.

But in those days of the Force Bill, and other of those damnable and dastardly stabs at the South, there was truly an intellectual genius in the form of Samuel J. Randall, from Republican Pennsylvania.

Mr. Randall was a Democrat—and a mighty good one at that. But don't you know HE WAS A PROTECTIONIST?

Mr. Randall also believed in doing the greatest good to the greatest number—provided that a greater number happened to be in his own district in Pennsylvania.

Again must we quote Ruth to Na-

TO FIND A ROUTE FOR AUTOMOBILES

Party Anxious to Include Gainesville on Official Tampa-Jacksonville Auto Highway.

With a determination to select a desirable and direct road between Gainesville and Jacksonville, the first action of the Gainesville Automobile Association is to indulge in a pathfinding tour, and at 5 o'clock this morning three cars left Gainesville for that city, with a view to ascertain such a route.

The party occupied three cars—Judge Syd L. Carter in his E. M. F. touring car, Geo. I. Dolg in his big Mitchell, and A. M. Cushman, in his Buick Roadster 10. These gentlemen were accompanied by Messrs. H. E. Taylor, A. R. Jones and Clyde L. Carter, members of the Association, with Frank Myers and Sam Bennett as chauffeurs, and Ed Allen, mechanic, all of whom are enthusiastic automobilists.

In speaking of the trip yesterday, Secretary Cushman stated that the route selected is via Starke and Highland, and that the party did not anticipate any serious trouble in selecting a desirable and direct road, and one which will be adopted as part of the official highway between Jacksonville and Tampa, which is now being agitated by autoists throughout the State.

The association is now in communication with the Tampa Auto Club in the matter of selecting a road, and have promised the Tampa club that everything would be done to make a perfect and direct highway from the Marion county line to Jacksonville, via this city.

Seventy-five signs have been ordered, and later another trip will be made, when the roadway will be blazed and posted.

This commendable and public-spirited enterprise on the part of the Gainesville Automobile Association will undoubtedly result in the selection of the Gainesville route as the one for general use by the tourists and pleasure seekers on their way to Tampa and the West Coast throughout the season, which will naturally mean a great deal for this city and section.

mi: 'Thy people my people!' Old Sam Randall stuck to his people, and they kept on sticking to him.

Well—to make a long story short—we do truly believe Frank Clark has made a pretty good Representative for the MAJORITY OF THE PEOPLE of his district, and while we think he has done a few very foolish "Dut-lunk!" stunts; IN THE MAIN we truly believe he has made an able and efficient Representative.

And this reminds us:

Just now we said something about President Lincoln. There is an old story of an office-seeker who called on the President and was given a message to Secretary Stanton. In due time the applicant returned and Mr. Lincoln asked: "Did you see Stanton?"

"Yes, Mr. President, I SAW him!"

"Well, what did he say?" inquired the President.

"I don't like to tell you, responded the applicant, but he said you were a DAMNED FOOL!"

"Now, did Stanton REALLY SAY THAT?"

"Yes, sir, he did and I can prove it!"

"Well," said Mr. Lincoln, "I tell you, STANTON IS USUALLY RIGHT!"

And that's just what THE FLORIDIAN thinks about Frank Clark and Winfield Scott Hancock and poor old Sam Randall and every other courageous man who has had the honesty and the MANHOOD to come out and TELL THE TRUTH and say that "THE TARIFF IS A LOCAL ISSUE!"

RIDDER WRITES OPEN LETTER TO PRESIDENT TAFT

Asserts That Country is Threatened With Industrial Disturbance Involving $285,000,000.

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—President Taft apparently was led into a serious blunder in the closing days of the recent session of Congress when he changed his attitude on the print paper schedule, according to an open letter addressed to the chief executive, and signed by Herman Ridder of New York, president of the American Newspaper Publishers' Association.

Mr. Ridder's letter, written some time ago, was made public yesterday, following its indorsement by the International and Daily Press Association. Mr. Ridder's letter follows:

"To the President: The full text of your address at Winona, Minn., on the tariff bill has just come to hand. With the utmost respect we submit that your statement respecting the paper schedule shows that you could not have correctly read or understood what the print paper paragraph contained, as it passed the House of Representatives.

Misled by Designing Men.

"You were apparently misled by designing men into a serious blunder when, in the closing days of the tariff conference, they induced you to reverse your previous attitude upon print paper, and changed your notions of what the Mann Committee recommended and of what the House of Representatives had approved. The Mann Committee, after a ten months' investigation, marked by unusual thoroughness, reported that a rate of $3 would cover the difference in cost of production at home and abroad. The draft proposed absolutely safeguarded American paper mills against the serious Canadian tangle, which your advice to the tariff conference has since precipitated.

"The fixing of the rate on print paper at $3.75 per ton, which you advised, has decided the province of Quebec to prohibit the exportation of its pulp wood, and many American paper mills must close or move to Canada, to obtain their supplies of raw material. The country is now in a fair way for a trade war with Canada, because of your apparent failure to read correctly the Mann Committee's recommendations. We are threatened with an industrial disturbance which will involve business interchanges with Canada amounting to $285,000,000 per annum.

"We sincerely trust that you can find some method of rectifying the mistake into which you were led. We fully appreciate the difficulties and responsibilities of your exalted office, and we believe you are trying to do the best you can. We know that you must rely upon others for your information. We feel that every citizen is under obligation to help you. Therefore, we write this letter to you. Yours respectfully, Herman Ridder, president American Newspaper Publishers' Association."

Superintendent Holloway Faces New Proposition

ST. AUGUSTINE, Oct. 20.—For the first time in the history of this county a full-blooded Chinese child has applied for admission to enter the public school and the officials of the school board are up against a proposition that is too delicate to decide without due consideration.

The little mite from the Flowery Kingdom is 12 years of age and rejoices in the name of Wong W. Joe. He is of the middle-class Chinese, and is here with his cousin, Joe, who operates a laundry and store here. He expressed a desire to go to school and his cousin made formal application for his admission to Prof. Boone, the principal of the high school. Mr. Boone not being informed on the status of Orientals here, referred the question to the school board through Superintendent Pinkham. The school board took the matter under advisment and finally decided that action in this case will establish a precedent, therefore referred it to State Superintendent Holloway, through Superintendent Pinkham.

Wong is a bright little fellow, clean as if he had been daily subjected to the same treatment given boiled shirts in the laundry of his cousin. There is no prejudice against him or his race, but as yet the sparse Chinese population would not incur any racial feeling. In time the Chinese may be as numerous here as on the Pacific Slope, in which case the race line would probably be drawn. The school board here decided to avoid any mistake in referring the matter to headquarters. Members of the school board are of the opinion that the boy will be admitted, but in the event of an increase in the Chinese population separate schools or instructors will be provided for them.

Women Horribly Mangled Under Switch Engine

COLUMBUS, Ga., Oct. 20.—Mrs. W. O. Munroe and Mrs. C. G. Strickland were killed and another woman was seriously injured by a Central of Georgia switch engine that ran into and demolished the street car in the railroad yards. The motorman and conductor were unhurt.

Mrs. Strickland jumped when the crash came and was caught under a freight car and horribly mangled. Her husband, who was summoned from his work, identified her immediately when shown her face, but was not permitted to see her body because of its terrible mutilation.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Monroe and 30

the Melvia Temple, daughter of a neighbor, boarded the car just a block from the scene of the accident. When he saw that a collision would occur, he seized his wife and the little girl and tried to help them to jump to safety. He and the little girl cleared the wreckage, but his wife was caught under the street car.

Miss Stella Knowles sprained her ankle in jumping from the car.

The members of both train crews were released last night under bond. Joe Palmer, the railroad flagman at the crossing where the collision occurred, was captured after a lively chase by the officers.

Daughters of Confederacy in Convention at Houston

HOUSTON, Tex., Oct. 20.—With the same spirit that made possible the accomplishment of magnificent achievements during the dreary days of 1861 and 1865, women of the South, who revere the memories of the men and women of that period, many of them actual participants in the scenes not chronicled in history, assembled in Houston yesterday for the purpose of reviewing the work of the year in the ranks of the United Daughters of the Confederacy.

Heavy rain during the night broke much of the mass of flags and bunting displayed over the city in honor of the Daughters, but it did dampen the spirits of the delegates in number—who gathered from thirty-two States to attend the annual sessions of the sixteenth annual convention.

The sessions began with addresses welcome by the city officials and Commissioner Dashiell on behalf of Governor Campbell, who was to be present. The day was given over to social features, interspersed with a little business routine. A beautiful feature of the day was the presentation to Mrs. Cornelia Stone of Galveston, the president, of a magnificent presidential jewel, the pendant star being set with diamonds. Following this huge bouquets of flowers were brought to the platform, tokens of the love of the Daughters for their president-general. Soon the plain platform was turned into a bower of flowers and color.

At the afternoon session the report of the committee on credentials was read, which was marked by the absence of any contest.

The feature of the day proved to be the unveiling in the afternoon of the monument to Terry's Rangers. The boulder is a huge rough hewn shaft and bears on one side a flag with the inscription: "In memory of Terry's Texas Rangers, 1861-65. Erected by E. Bennett Bates Auxiliary to Oran M. Roberts Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, October 19, 1909."

The speakers were Mrs. Cornelius Branch Stone, Col. Philip Hall and Miss Katie Daffin.

Keen contest has developed for the office of president-general, with six candidates in the field. Texas will not ask the re-election of Mrs. Stone.

Virginia was the first State to make a bid for the next convention, the city of Richmond asking for the honor. Little Rock, Ark., and Wilmington, N. C., are also after the next convention.

Post Offices Are To Be Regularly Employed in Post Offices

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—Post-General Hitchcock has decided that should be regularly employed in postoffices throughout the country.

Reason for this is that rats are considerable damage to letters in the department's property and that they must be done immediately to exterminate the rodents.

During the present fiscal year $1,350 for "cat meat" will be expended by the Postoffice Department. Cats who would like jobs with Mr. Hitchcock will have to pass a civil service examination, which will consist of showing whether they are good rat killers or not.

SAN ANTONIO GAVE TAFT BIG WELCOME

STREETS LINED WITH PEOPLE TO RECEIVE THE PRESIDENT.

Went to Fort Sam Houston and Accepts Chapel Erected by Citizens of San Antonio.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Oct. 18.—The President's travels brought him to the far South Sunday. After 21 hours of continuous journeying from El Paso, he arrived here at 7:30 p. m. and despite the fact that it was Sunday night, was given a cheering welcome. A big crowd was gathered at the station and the streets leading from the depot to the St. Anthony Hotel were lined with people.

After being received by the city officials, the President was driven to the hotel with an escort of cavalry, and later in the evening proceeded to Fort Sam Houston, where he assisted in the dedication and accepted on behalf of the Government, the chapel which has been erected at the famous old army post by the citizens of San Antonio.

To Lay Cornerstone.

Monday morning the President helped to put in place the cornerstone of the nearly completed chapel, reviewed the troops stationed at Fort Sam Houston, and, returning to the city made an outdoor address to the people from a grandstand in Alamo plaza.

During the afternoon he left for Gregory, Texas, near Corpus Christi, to spend four days on the ranch of his brother, Charles P. Taft. The latter passed through here for the ranch to prepare a welcome for the President.

The President's train passed through the thinly settled western part of the State, and made but few stops.

At Del Rio, Sanderson and one or two other places, the President made brief speeches to the depot throngs, which were made up of Mexicans, residents of the community, and farmers who had driven many miles in their best "Sunday-go-to-meeting" clothes.

Through Cotton Fields.

The sage brush and cactus of the farther west reaches of the State gave way as the day advanced to mesquite bushes and finally to the pasture lands and cotton fields, for which the State is famous. In some of the fields the fleecy staple was breaking in white puffs from the bolls. The President, at the Pecos river, passed over what is declared to be the highest railway bridge in the world. The river runs in a rocky canon, 325 feet below the rails. The wind was blowing a gale as the President's train passed over the slender steel structure, and the engineer ran at a veritable snail's pace.

Dr. Kennedy's Auto Trip.

Five days, seven hours and forty-five minutes, was the actual time of the recent trip of Dr. S. R. M. Kennedy from Pensacola to New York, a distance of 1,545 miles, which was finished Tuesday of last week. The trip was made by Dr. Kennedy in his car of the toy tonneau type, with only his chauffeur so far as Salem, Va., where his wife and son joined him. From Atlanta he followed the New York Herald-Atlanta Journal route, having taken the "ride route" as far as Atlanta. No trouble was experienced en route and the car arrived "with Pensacola air in the tires," as the Doctor expressed it. This fact he attributes to the good condition of the roads and the strength of his car. Many tourists are likely to try this route in the future. Such a trip stirs up the interest in good roads.—Jacksonville Times-Union.

ANOTHER WOMAN CURED

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Gardiner, Maine.—"I have been a great sufferer from organic troubles and a severe female weakness. The doctor said I would have to go to the hospital for an operation, but I could not bear to think of it. I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Sanative Wash—and was entirely cured after three months' use of them."—Mrs. S. A. WILLIAMS, R. F. D. No. 14, Box 89, Gardiner, Me.

No woman should submit to a surgical operation, which may mean death, until she has given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made exclusively from roots and herbs, a fair trial.

This famous medicine for women has for thirty years proved to be the most valuable tonic and renewer of the female organism. Women residing in almost every city and town in the United States bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It cures female ills, and creates radiant, buoyant female health. If you are ill, for your own sake as well as those you love, give it a trial.

Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

WILL DESTROY TREES.

Atlantic Coast Line Takes Important
Steps for State.

The Atlantic Coast Line, acting under instructions from the Agricultural Department, has advised all of their track foremen to cut away all chinaberry trees in this territory.

It has been fully decided in a lengthy circular recently issued that the chinaberry tree was the most fruitful source for the propagation of the white fly which is now infesting this State and which yearly costs this country many thousands of dollars in the matter of laying their eggs upon the orange and other fruit. When once blighted with the disease it spreads to an entire grove, and the value of the fruit is just about one-half.

The Coast Line officials were prompt in taking up the matter and are to be commended for their action in destroying these trees that are proving a destruction to the orange interests of the State.

UNION WAS REORGANIZED.

Planning Great Work for the Coming Winter Season.

The Junior Union of the Baptist church was reorganized on Sunday afternoon, when much interest and renewed energy was shown, and the same starts off with a membership of some forty-seven under the most favorable auspices.

The superintendent and children are planning great work for the winter and hope to have all of the old members again with them, as well as a great many new ones, to be enrolled by next Sunday.

An election of officers resulted as follows: Yeteva Rogers, president; Chas. Holstein, vice-president; Esther Smith, secretary; Malba Rogers, treasurer; Leon Rivers, birthday chaplain. H. R. Wilburn was selected superintendent for the coming year, and the Junior is anticipating fine work for the coming winter under such splendid leaders to direct them.

Meeting at Rochelle.

All persons or families interested in Oak Ridge Cemetery are requested to meet at Martha Perry Institute, Rochelle, Fla., Friday, October 29th, 1909, at 7:30 p. m., for the purpose of organizing a cemetery association. For further information address "Cemetery Association," R. F. D. No. 5, Box 33, Gainesville, Florida.

DRUNKEN NEGRO IS KILLED BY ENGINE

USED SUIT CASE FOR PILLOW
AND R. R. TRACK FOR BED.

Accident Occurred Near White House,
Between Jacksonville and Baldwin, Saturday Night.

JACKSONVILLE, Oct. 18.—Falling asleep in a drunken stupor with a suit case for a pillow and the railroad track for a bed, Harry Senior, a negro, was run over and killed by a Seaboard Air Line passenger train late Saturday afternoon, a short distance from the Whitehouse station, between Jacksonville and Baldwin. His body was picked up by trainmen and brought to the city. A coroner's jury will investigate the case. The jury viewed the body Saturday and will meet again on Tuesday at noon to hear further evidence and render a verdict.

Senior, along with a colored woman, had been in Jacksonville Saturday, and was en route to his home, about two miles from Whitehouse, when the accident happened. According to the story as it was brought to Justice Willard, Senior had been drinking heavily and was carrying a suit case. He left Jacksonville on the evening train and got off at Whitehouse.

Lay Down on Track.

After the train had puffed on its way Senior, with the woman, started to walk along the track to take a short cut to his home. The woman walked ahead, and for some reason soon left Senior behind. Growing sleepy, it is supposed, from the effect of the liquor which he had drank, he lay down upon the track with the suit case as a pillow, forgetting the danger. The evening passenger train en route from Baldwin struck Senior, and he was horribly mangled. The body was sent to Whitehouse for burial.

Trainmen did not notice the reclining form of the man on the track until it was too late to stop the train. As it was the train stopped within a few feet after the body was struck, and the remains of the dead man were brought to the city.

Imperfect Digestion

Means less nutrition and in consequence less vitality. When the liver fails to secrete bile, the blood becomes loaded with bilious properties, the digestion becomes impaired and the bowels constipated. Herbine will rectify this; it gives tone to the stomach, liver and kidneys, strengthens the appetite, clears complexion, improves the complexion, infuses new life and vigor to the whole system. 50 cents a bottle. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

To Clean Up Cemetery.

Pine Grove church has appointed the first Tuesday in November, which will be on the second, for the purpose of meeting, cleaning up and working the Pine Grove Cemetery. All interested are requested to meet at the church. By order of JAMES K. SHEFFIELD, Pastor of Church.

A Shaking Up

May all be very well so far as the trusts are concerned, but not when it comes to chills and fever and malaria. Quit the quinine and take a real cure—Ballard's Herbine. Contains no harmful drugs and is as certain as taxes. If it doesn't cure, you get your money back. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

REGULAR SESSION HERE IN DECEMBER

COURT MAY BE DELAYED FOR SHORT WHILE.

Session Will Last Two Weeks or More With the Present Docket.

The next regular session of the United States Court for this district will be held in this city during December, the reporter was informed Monday.

District Attorney Fred Cubberly states that the coming session will be a busy one and that it will require two weeks or more to complete the business that is already before the body, in the event that nothing else is brought up between now and that time.

The coming session may be delayed owing to the fact that the Federal building at Pensacola is torn to pieces, and this will delay the session there, which will necessarily delay the time for convening in Gainesville.

The establishment of this court in this city will mean a great thing to Gainesville when it has become established, and after they will have entered their own building now under construction. Although only a session of this court has been held here since it was organized, it is easily seen the good effects that would have upon the business men, a large amount of money was paid to witnesses and jurors, besides it attracted a great number of strangers to the city.

A NOVEMBER WEDDING.

Drayton Avera Will Wed Popular Marion County Lady.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Allen have announced the approaching wedding of their daughter, Mary Sue, to Mr. Drayton Avera on Wednesday evening, November the third, nineteen hundred and nine, at half-past six o'clock at the Christian church at Ocala, Florida.

Miss Allen is a delightfully charming young woman, cultured and refined, and is a daughter of one of the most prominent citizens of that county of our county. Mr. Allen was formerly a county commissioner, and well-known all over the county, as well as his daughter's friends will be greatly interested in the above announcement.

Mr. Avera is a well-known insurance man. The ceremony, which will be performed by Rev. W. H. Coleman in this city, a wedding supper will be served at the bride's home, after which the young couple will come to the city on the night train, and from there will start on their wedding trip. The Ocala Banner unites with their friends in offering congratulations and wishes—Ocala Banner.

LETTER TO A. L. VIDAL, Gainesville, Florida.

Sir: "He's a very good man when he goes, he's only about fifteen years old."

What do you think of that? There are eight paints not adulterated and full-gallon; there are more than a hundred in all; some adulterated three-quarters, some two-thirds, some half, one-third, a quarter, and when you get down to fifty per cent, they seem very good indeed; they're only about fifty per cent tricky.

How much is it fair to cheat in a gallon, by measure, and how much by weight, or whitening, china-clay, stone, barytes, benzine, and so on? Fifteen is the least; twenty is worth while to cheat for less; thirty they seem to think so. Maybe, it isn't worth while.

White is the strongest of all. A gallon further: 10 gallons Devco worth for a job that takes 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, of white; and a gallon costs $5 when others are paid.

To reckon the costs, Devco, $50; white, $55; $40, $45, $70, and so on. How long will they wear? The white wears longest, of course.

It's worth while to cheat when an paint costs least and wears longest. Yours truly,
F. W. DEVCO & CO.

Terrible Red Patches on Face and Arms Made Victim Ashamed to be Seen—Suffered Intensely for Ten Months—Expert Treatment Gave No Relief—Two Sets of the

CUTICURA REMEDIES ENTIRELY CURED HER

"About two years ago I contracted eczema and suffered intensely for about ten months. At times I thought I would scratch myself to pieces. My face and arms were covered with large red patches, so that I was ashamed to go out. I was advised to go to a doctor who was a specialist in skin diseases, but I received very little relief. I tried every known remedy, with the same results. I thought I would never get better until a friend of mine told me to try the Cuticura Remedies. So I tried them as the last resource, and I am very glad that I did, for after four or five applications of Cuticura Ointment I was relieved of my unbearable itching. I used two sets of the Cuticura Remedies (Soap, Ointment and Pills), and I am completely cured. I always recommend Cuticura to any one that is suffering and in every case it seems to cure. Miss Barbara Kral, 629 Mt. Pleasant Ave., Highlandtown, Md., Jan. 9, '08."

DEATH OF MR. SETH R. BROWN.

Occurred at Residence of Daughter in Micanopy Last Week.

Information of the death of the above named gentleman reached this city yesterday. He died at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Knox, at Micanopy, Wednesday at noon. The remains were brought to Ocala on the 9 o'clock train last night and were taken to the undertaking chapel of Messrs. Melver & MacKay, and will be buried from there at 10 o'clock this morning.

Mr. Brown was one of the pioneer settlers of this county, having a farm in what was then called the Long Swamp settlement, and was living there at the outbreak of the Civil War. He enlisted and did faithful service as a soldier, and after the war continued farming for several years, but about twenty years ago moved to this city and lived here until his children married off, when he resided with his son, Mr. James Brown, and a few months ago went to Micanopy on a visit to his daughter, and became too ill to return.

Mr. Brown was over 80 years of age, and lived a peaceable, quiet, upright life. He was the father of Mr. James Brown of this city, Mrs. Knox of Micanopy, Mrs. Frank Moorehead of Charleston, S. C., Mr. C. A. Brown of Bakersfield, Cal., and was an uncle of Hon. C. M. Brown of Miami. He was a member of the Baptist church, and will be mourned not only by his immediate relatives but by a large circle of friends.—Ocala Banner.

SEASON SCHEDULE FOR THE UNIVERSITY

ONLY SEVEN GAMES ARRANGED FOR ENTIRE SEASON.

Stetson and Winter Park Among the Strongest Aggregations That Will Visit Here.

The schedule of football games arranged for the University with other teams during the coming season has been announced by Manager E. A. Taylor, who states that some good work will be seen on the field in Gainesville.

Coach Piles, who has been very busy since his arrival in Gainesville, has already shown what he could do with the boys, for the game on last Saturday clearly demonstrated just where a little practice had placed the boys, since their first game with the city, and while he is tutoring both the teams at the University he of course has picked a winning one for the first eleven.

Only a few games have been secured for the present season, but this list may be added to in time; and there will also be several games no doubt between the High School and University, while the town eleven will practice and afford some amusement for the people between these two teams.

Following is the schedule as arranged for the season up to the present time, and it will be seen that while only a few games have been secured the majority of them are to be played in this city, as follows:

Oct. 23—Olympics, Jacksonville.
Oct. 30—Rollins College, Gainesville.
Nov. 6—Stetson, DeLand.
Nov. 15—Rollins, Winter Park.
Nov. 20—Olympics, Gainesville.
Nov. 25—Stetson, Gainesville.

This will afford the people of this city an opportunity to see the greater part of the games that have so far been scheduled, but an effort will be made to secure more games before the season is over.

AN UNUSUAL OFFER.

Don't Fail to Take Advantage of This Big Reduction in New Millinery.

To the Ladies of Alachua County—Owing to a business engagement which will compel my personal absence from my millinery parlors for a few weeks at last of the season, I have concluded to offer anything in my large stock at 20 per cent discount from regular prices, if purchased within the present month, beginning Monday, October 18th. I have nothing in my millinery department that is not fresh from the importers in the last six weeks, and with the reputation I possess for always having the latest styles, everyone who purchases at this unusual low sale can rest assured that they are getting the best and latest in hats. I shall be pleased to have a call from you during the season. Mrs. F. T. McCormick, west side of square, next to Gainesville Hardware Company.

By all means let us have a white man's primary for nomination of city officials to be elected next April.

Powder bonds have been listed on the Stock Exchange. We do hope they will be kept away from the Diamond Match.

The county commissioners have refused to call a wet and dry election in Putnam county, deciding that the petition asking for same was illegal.

Loyal smokers should all rally cheerfully to the aid of poor old Key West, the source of so much of their pleasure, says The Wall Street Journal.

How true it is that generally we are more ready to find the faults in those who displease us than to find the excellencies in those whom we esteem our friends.

If you anticipate being a candidate for a State or county office next year it would be a good idea for you to get a copy of the new primary law and study it carefully.

In the face of the small American cotton crop, Australia expects a record cotton clip of 1,900,000 bales. But for our tariff some clothes might really be "all wool" this year.

Tuesday's special election to fill the vacancy in the office of marshal was a good natured affair. Both the candidates were good, clean men, and refrained from any mud-slinging at each other. It is our honest opinion that Chas. M. Dell will fill the office with credit to himself and satisfaction of his friends. He is capable and honest, and will make a good officer.

Henry T. Hopkins was convicted of manslaughter at the recent term of court in Dade county for killing two men in North Miami in May, 1908, and sentenced to one day's imprisonment in the county jail. The jury recommended that he be given the minimum sentence, and Judge Minor S. Jones said that he should either have been convicted of murder or acquitted as acting in self-defense. Juries certainly render some strange verdicts.

Mrs. Ruth Bryan Leavett is, so they say, a candidate for nomination for Congress from Colorado. So it is not impossible she may become a Representative. One has gone far up the political ladder when elected to Congress. It does not necessarily require a long time to change the constitution. Events move rapidly in this age. Is Mrs. Leavett to beat her pa to the Presidential chair? asks The Asheville (N. C.) Gazette-News.

Hon. Ion Farris of Jacksonville has announced that he will take the field against Frank Clark. This makes about three who think they can walk all around the present Congressman and still Frank is not worrying any. And why should he? His constituents are well satisfied with his stewardship and are not desirous of any changes. Frank Clark is good enough for the voters and they will demonstrate it when election day rolls around.—Sanford Herald.

FOR PRINCIPLE'S SAKE

It may, or it may not, cost something to do the right thing, says The Greensboro (N. C.) News. To make a stand for the sake of a principle, however, unusually costs something. It's an easy thing to go with the crowd, to drift with the current, to be on the popular side—it doesn't require any effort at all to straddle—but it may mean crucifixion of soul and body to stand alone. The world applauds the victor, and it should; but the loser in the struggle must tread the path to his calvary unattended. And so the old world wags on its way regardless alike of victor and vanquished—for we poor mortals, each acting his or her own little part in the drama of life, must needs soon retire from the footlights, the prompter calls for the curtain and then—

But—is the victor, he who calls for applause, always victorious? Away back yonder on the hills of Judea a tragedy was enacted one day. A man, a mere man, had dared to defy the power of one high in authority; he had even braved the wrath of one called Herod in that he told him of his sins—the man lost his head. And the next day word was sent out from the King's palace that the man was no more.

Some three years later another awful tragedy, one over which the heavens cast a pall of blackness, shutting out from the sight of men the noonday sun, was taking place, for amid the jeers and curses of weaklings the soul of One cried out, "It is finished!"

And some time afterward there was a scene enacted without a city's gates. Men were stoning a man to death—and without the city's gates the soul of the first martyr passed from life on earth into rest.

These things happened in the long, long ago; the world was younger then, it had not become so refined and civilized as it is today.

Years afterward a gray-haired soldier surrendered an army at Appomattox—he lived a little while longer, yet his ears never heard his name acclaimed as victor.

These men, and the One, lost—did they? And we have only cited a tithe of those who have lived for the sake of a principle, whose death was marked only by shadows of gloom and sorrow and tears—yet, in the fierce light of the after years, stand forth as conquerors.

God Almighty, refuge of our fathers, give to our dear land men who fear not to stand alone!

Every town in the State should wage war against the English sparrow until the little pest are exterminated, for they are not only filthy little creatures, but destructive of other birds. Some years ago we called attention to the determined effort of the people of Orlando to rid their town of the English sparrow, and we are glad to note that their efforts have been successful, as shown by the following from The Reporter-Star: "Orlando has done one thing that every town of prominence has failed on, and that is to keep out the miserable English sparrow. These pests are distributed all over the country in box cars, where they go to feed and are shut in, so when the car is opened in another town they simply fly out, like any other tramp or hobo. Orlando has managed to kill them so successfully that now when freight trains stop in Orlando with them on board the conductors of the freights on the Atlantic Coast Line and the Seaboard railway say they refuse to get off."

If the manufacture and importation of toys are to be taken as an indication there is abundant evidence of increase in prosperity among the masses in the United States in recent years. During the past ten years $50,000,000 worth of toys has been imported and $5,000,000 worth exported by our people. The high mark in the export of this class of American manufacture was reached in the last fiscal year, the total value being for the first time $1,000,000. On the import side the high mark was reached in 1908, when the value of toys imported was $7,500,000.

J. H. Reese says in The Manufacturers' Record of Baltimore that there are 3,000,000 acres of land in the Everglades "with a covering of grass only, which can be burned off, costing nothing to clear it." And The Times-Union Short Talks man is so cruel as to remark that "now would be a good time to burn it."

Falling Hair

Ayer's Hair Vigor promptly destroys the germs that cause falling hair. It nourishes the hair-bulbs, restores them to health. The hair stops falling out, grows more rapidly.

Does not Color the Hair

We wish you to positively and distinctly understand that Ayer's Hair Vigor does not affect the color of the hair, even to the slightest degree. Persons with the whitest or the lightest and most delicate blond hair may use it freely without having the hair made a shade darker.

Ingredients: Sulphur, Glycerin, Quinine, Sodium Chloride, Capsicum, Sage, Alcohol, Water, Perfume.

Dandruff

Ayer's Hair Vigor just as promptly destroys the germs that cause dandruff. It removes every trace of dandruff itself, and keeps the scalp clean and in a healthy condition.

ARE CHILDREN HAPPY?

To some the above may seem a foolish question, but is it? Think of the number of children that commit suicide. There was the pathetic case the other day in one of our large cities in which a little eleven-year-old girl deliberately turned on the gas and killed herself. She left a pathetic note to her mother in which she said: "I killed myself because everyone is mean to me. I no longer want to live." In Germany the number of child suicides is rapidly increasing, just as it is in this country.

There must be reasons for this trend. What are they? Probably one is to be found in the school. Too many studies are given to the average child. They impose a severe strain upon the physical, mental and nervous system, with the result, as all know, that many children when they leave school are simply a bunch of nerves. From that to suicide is not unoften a short step. Then, too, the rush of modern life to some extent evidently affects children directly, and, indirectly, to a very great extent through hereditary influence. The case of the little girl above cited indicates that teasing and meanness by some children and older persons are also by no means uncommon.

Childhood ought to be the happiest period of life, because it should be free from care. Doubtless most children are happy, but it is clear many are not. Fortunately the causes of this unhappiness suggest the remedies. Don't cram children with too much studies. Let parents take life easier, with less rush and bustle, and let no one be guilty of a mean act or word to a little child.

With all due respect to those who are laying the property lines changed for the laying of sidewalks on East Union street we consider it a piece of ——— foolishness. What is the use of moving the fences north three feet on property east of Crawford & Davis' stables when every building west of S. J. Burnett's home on the same street is constructed of brick? Evidently those in authority do not expect to improve the appearance of the street by thus moving the lines. Original Gainesville was at one time uniform as to size of blocks, width of streets, etc., but such is not the case now—and the running of a few more lines for the laying of sidewalks will soon make it the most "zig-zag" town in appearance in the State. It would have been far better had the original property lines, as under fence for fifty years or more, been adhered to in laying sidewalks.

Dr. Alexander Lambert, the family physician of Ex-President Roosevelt and a professor at the Cornell Medical College, announces that he has obtained a speedy cure for both drug habit and alcoholism. He has experimented with many cases at the Bellevue Hospital and has the utmost confidence in its efficiency. No matter how much a slave to those habits the subject may have been, Dr. Lambert believes he can restore will power and self-respect in as brief a period as five days. He does not imperil the ethics of the profession by advertising this as a secret process. The ingredients of the remedy are tincture of belladonna, fluid extract of hyoscyamus, which mingled in the proper proportions will eradicate the fatal craving which has ruined so many lives and homes.

This is the season of the year to beware of advertising fakirs who make it their business to fish Florida people during the winter months. The Tampa Chamber of Commerce has secured the agreement of the business men of that city not to patronize any advertising scheme which has not the written endorsement of the chairman and secretary of the publicity committee. The Gainesville Board of Trade should do something along the same line.

CANNOT COLLECT NOTE

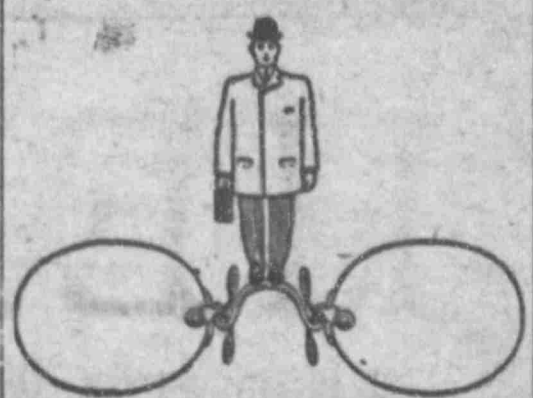

GIVEN FOR GAMBLING DEBT.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—The supreme court of the United States yesterday refused to take cognizance of the case of Majors vs. Williamson, involving responsibility for a note given to pay a debt assumed in connection with a speculation on the stock exchange. The debt was contracted by Williamson in Memphis, Tenn., and a note was given with Mississippi real estate as security. The laws of the States of Tennessee and Mississippi prohibit gambling, and it was contended that under such laws the note could not be collected. The United States circuit court of appeals sustained this view and the effect of yesterday's ruling is to uphold the finding of that court.

The City Council should provide a fund for charitable purposes, no part of which should be expended except upon the approval of the committee on charities. It is a disgrace to the city that a subscription list has to be carried around to aid those who are in absolute need. Then again, many people have been imposed upon so often that they do not know whether they are really contributing to a worthy subject or an impostor. It is the city's business to care for its poor, and the annual budget should contain an appropriation for that purpose.

Sentiment seems to be increasing in favor of calling a Democratic State Convention to decide "where we are at" regarding the issues of the times. The party has been "at sea" long enough, and it is high time a State convention gave expression to the sentiment of the people. Chairman Price favors the calling of a convention, we are informed, and it is probable that a call will be issued for the same when the State Committee again convenes.

If the members of the City Council of Gainesville desire to do something beneficial for the youth of the place they could not do it more effectively than by emulating the example of the Orlando city dads and pass an ordinance prohibiting the selling or giving away of cigarettes or cigarette paper to any minor, or the procuring of same for minors. We will be pleased to furnish a copy of this ordinance to the councilman who will introduce it.

OWEN WILL KNOW HIS FATE TUESDAY

TWICE CONDEMNED TO DIE, MA STILL ENJOYS LIFE.

Attorneys Baker and Broome Receive Notice That Argument for New Trial Will Be Heard Tuesday.

On Tuesday, October 20th, R. L. Owen, tried and convicted for the murder of R. L. Smith in the western section of the county some time ago who was sentenced to be hanged July 23rd, but who was granted reprieve upon a writ of error, will know his fate, as Attorneys Baker and Broome, representing the condemned man, have been notified by Attorney-General Trammell that the motion for new trial will be argued on that date, at 10 o'clock in the morning, before the supreme court at Tallahassee. This hearing will be final, and Attorney-General Trammell will insist that the ruling and verdict of the lower, or circuit court, be sustained.

The facts and evidence as presented in this case are yet fresh in the minds of the people, the case having been heard at the last spring term of the circuit court in and for Alachua county, and having attracted considerable attention, as Owen was the first white man ever convicted and sentenced to be legally hung in Alachua county.

Friday, July 9th, was the day first set for the execution, and the gallows had been erected, the rope stretched and everything was in readiness, when, through the efforts of his attorneys, the man was granted a reprieve of two weeks, extending the date to Friday, July 23rd. Again everything was in readiness, but the meantime the faithful attorney for the condemned man worked diligently in his behalf, and the night preceding the day set the second time for the execution, another stay of execution was received upon a writ of error. At the time feeling was high and it was thought advisable to take the man to Jacksonville to prevent probable violence. Since that time Owen has been confined in the Duval county jail, pending the argument for a new trial, as above stated.

The hearing was originally set for October 19th.

For some time prior to the date set for his execution, Owen was either sick or feigned illness, but the change to the Duval county jail seemed to have a most beneficial effect upon his physical condition.

MELROSE NEWS NOTES.

MELROSE, Oct. 20.—The revival meetings held at the Methodist church by Revs. Barr and McCall for the past three weeks ended on Sunday last, when three services were held. The meetings were very well attended, the congregations often taxing the space of the building. As a result twenty-four new members were received on Sunday.

Mrs. O. D. Bruce of Tampa, grandmother of the O. E. S., will be in Melrose on Friday, Oct. 22, on her official visit. All members are requested to be present at 2 p. m. sharp.

Miss Cora Lynn of Atlanta arrived yesterday to visit Mrs. C. P. Huffman. The shipment of grapefruit from this section has commenced.

At an adjourned council meeting G. McGregor was elected councilman to fill the vacancy made by E. Ford's removal to California.

J. J. Simmons reports having shipped 45 bales of cotton so far and expects about 20 more.

Mr. Dell Is Thankful.

Chas. M. Dell, who carried off the plum in the race for marshal in the special election Tuesday, requests The Sun in his behalf to extend thanks to all who voted for him, and also to state that he has nothing but the best of feeling for those who did not. He will endeavor to serve the people as marshal efficiently and fairly, and declares he is going to try and fulfill the duties of the office so well that everybody will give him their vote at the next regular city election.

Large shipments of vegetables are daily going forward from Dade county and prices are said to be splendid.

FOR GOOD ROADS A CLUB IS FORMED

ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING OF AUTOMOBILISTS TUESDAY NIGHT.

Gainesville Automobile Association Organized and Launched in Behalf of Better Roadways.

Pursuant to call, a large and enthusiastic meeting of the automobile owners and drivers was held at the council chamber Tuesday night for the purpose of organizing an association looking toward the improvement of the roads and the construction of new ones.

The majority of automobilists were present, and others who were unable to be there sent word of their interest in the movement, and their intention to enlist their hearty support in the venture. Among these were C. L. Carter, B. K. Thrower, Jr., E. Taylor, J. W. Blanding, Dr. H. Montgomery, Frank B. Myers. These gentlemen signified their wish to become members of the organization.

A temporary organization was effected by the election of Judge Syd Carter president and A. M. Cushman secretary, after which a set of laws were presented and upon motion adopted.

After the adoption of the by-laws, the organization was made permanent, and is to be known as the Gainesville Automobile Association of Gainesville, Florida.

The following officers were elected during the ensuing term:

Syd L. Carter, president; M. H. Deane, vice-president; A. M. Cushman, secretary; H. E. Taylor, treasurer; E. Lartigue, Geo. I. Doig, G. H. Riley, directors.

On motion of Dr. E. Lartigue, it was decided that the association raise funds, and blaze the best route from Gainesville to Jacksonville.

On motion of Geo. I. Doig, the secretary was instructed to write the Gainesville Automobile Club that this association was willing, and would post, and make passable the best route between this city and Jacksonville, provided the said club would accept this association that it would be selected as the official route between Tampa and Jacksonville.

On motion it was ordered that if Tampa club accepts offer of the

"DRAW AT SIGHT" WERE INSTRUCTIONS

TO THE MAYOR OF KEY WEST
WEDNESDAY.

Through Efforts of Noble Woman, Subscription List Started by The Sun Considerably Increased.

With a generosity commendable the people of Gainesville have come to the relief of their storm-stricken brothers of Key West, and the result is that the sum of $63.70 net was placed on deposit in the First National Bank of Gainesville Wednesday, and a wire to the mayor of the Island City instructing him to draw at sight for that amount was forwarded. Thus Gainesville has done her share towards relieving the suffering of the people of that stricken city.

To the charitable energy of Mrs. Lina Jones, who undertook the matter of raising subscriptions, great credit is due, for if it had not been for the efforts of this good woman, there would probably have been nothing accomplished; but Mrs. Jones, reading the plea in The Sun, generously assumed the responsibility of making a canvass, with very gratifying results, as is shown in the list below.

In addition to the amount raised by The Sun, to which a cash contribution of $2 was added during Wednesday, Mrs. Jones handed in the following list, accompanied by the cash:

W. R. Thomas	$5.00
Gainesville National Bank	5.00
P. Miller	5.00

marks by several present, the meeting adjourned subject to the call of the president.

This is the proper step, as it means the beginning of an organized movement for more and better roads throughout the entire county.

GUARANTEE BANK LAW IS UNCONSTITUTIONAL

Governor Shallenberger of Nebraska Criticizes Federal Court For So Deciding State Law.

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 18.—In a statement on the action of the two Federal judges, who Saturday declared the Nebraska bank guaranty law unconstitutional, Governor Shallenberger deprecates the ruling as smacking, he says, of partisanship and what he believes is a distinct blow at remedial State legislation. Governor Shallenberger also declares that the reference of the case to the Federal instead of the State Judiciary, is a usurpation of power. He says in part:

"The decision is exactly what those who for partisan or selfish reasons are opposed to and effective guaranty of deposits law desired. It goes to the very heart of the question and denies the right of the State to require the banks, which exist by virtue of their charters, to pay a certain tax to create a guaranty fund or to prescribe a form and manner under which the banking business shall be conducted. It appears to leave banking no more a matter for public legislation or litigation than the grocery or butcher business.

"The law which has been set aside by the decree of the court was fraught with great benefit to the people. I am sure that the people desired the legislation and were anxious to see it put into actual practice. One result of the nullification of legislation by the courts would be to intensify the desire and determination that our State supreme court shall not be longer constituted wholly of members of one political party. It might be noted in passing that the distinguished Democrat of this State who was made a federal judge by a revered Republican President was not called into judgment upon the case.

"The overthrow of legislative enactments, by interference by the executive, by the use of patronage or the veto power, and by the nullification of laws by our courts, has steadily tended to degrade the power of the legislative branch of our Government and to make it a thing for politicians and lobbyists to play with."

Early Blaze Monday.

The fire department was called to Box 73, located at the corner of Alachua and Roper avenues, on Monday morning, when it was found that the cottage owned by James Doig had been in flames, but was extinguished without water having to be placed on the building. A fine run was made by the fire laddies, who responded with their usual promptness.

Many Improvements Are Being Made at White House

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—Congress sets apart thousands of dollars a year for maintenance and repairs at the White House. The latter cost quite as much as the former, due to the fact that the house is visited yearly by great throngs of people who leave behind them trails of wear and tear that demands prompt attention. The annual house-cleaning and repainting always take place while the President and his family are absent for the summer, and this work for the current season is now drawing rapidly to a close. It is expected that the house and grounds and the enlarged executive offices will be in readiness for occupancy by the time Mrs. Taft returns to Washington from Beverly, about the latter part of this month. Certainly everything will be in first-class condition by the time the President returns, a month later. The President has approved a plan to finish the interior of his private office in the enlarged executive building with wood grown in the Philippines. The parquet flooring of the office will be of Tuscany-Calao wood, dark green in color, which grows abundantly in the islands. The furniture in the President's office will be covered with the skin of the carabao, or Philippine buffalo, brought from the Philippines for this especially. So much for the President's good will for the little brown men.

The White House has been given a new coat of paint during the summer, prior to which several coats of the old paint were carefully removed. The building has never presented a cleaner and more inviting appearance than at present. Inside, the green room has been redecorated, the furniture reupholstered and the wood-work repainted. All the other parlors have been gone over carefully and put in first-class condition for the return of the Presidential family, but no radical changes have been made in either furniture or decorations.

As a whole, however, the interior will present a most attractive appearance, and this will last pretty well through the social season, which will begin early in the winter. Mrs. Taft, while she will take things more philosophically than she did last season, has invited her sister to help her in receiving, and plans are under way to make the Tafts' first winter in the White House memorable socially. This will be the easier because of Mrs. Taft's fondness for social affairs, and her finely developed musical and artistic tastes.

Army Officers Have to Refund Pay to Government

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—About two hundred army officers have been called on by the War Department to refund to the treasury sums of money varying in amount from $100 to $2,000, being the pay received by them for exercising higher command than their actual rank in the war with Spain, and later in the Philippines. This was apparently authorized by an interpretation of the law which provided that an officer should receive the pay of the grade of which he was engaged in performing. This situation found captains in command of battalions and majors and lieutenant colonels in command of regiments. The unexpected demand from the Treasury Department has operated as hardship upon the officers who have received this notice after so many years. They find there is no appeal from the decision, and as they are not responsible for the misinterpretation of the law or the misapplication of the statutes they think it would be proper to seek legislation authorizing them to retain the money which they were considered ten or more years ago as having fairly earned and to which they were legally entitled. There might be some difficulty in obtaining an appropriation if it required a new disbursement of money, but the situation can be fully met by inserting in the army appropriation act a clause which will protect the army officers as adversely affected.

CITY COUNCIL HAD BUSY SHORT SESSION

MATTER OF TARRING STREETS AGAIN TAKEN UP.

City Attorney to Visit Tallahassee in the Interest of the West Main Street Matter.

The City Council met in adjourned session on Monday evening at 7:30, with President Broome, Aldermen Burnett, Graves, Phifer, Pound, and Clerk Dell present.

The election committee were ordered to prepare the ballot box and turn same over to Clerk Dell, who in turn was to deliver to inspectors and clerks of election.

Alderman Pound moved that the proposition of E. C. F. Sanchez be accepted, and that $150 be paid him out of the contingent fund as soon as satisfactory deed by the city attorney was furnished. Carried.

Alderman Phifer moved that the committee to whom was referred the auditor's report to check up with the Board of Public Works, be granted until first meeting in November to render their report. Carried.

Upon motion of Alderman Burnett the clerk was instructed to order a warrant book which was to cost $7 for two thousand warrants.

The communication of P. D. Cassidy regarding the putting down of coal tar on the streets was referred to the street committee to report on before the work was done.

Petition asking for a light to be placed at the corner of Oak and McCormick streets was referred to the light committee with power to act.

Alderman Burnett moved that clerk pay city attorney $25 for expenses of a trip to Tallahassee to look after the city's interests in the railroad matter regarding West Main street. Carried.

Alderman Phifer moved an adjournment until Thursday evening at 7:30; which was adopted, and the council stood adjourned until the hour of 7:30 p. m., October 21.

MAYORALTY FIGHT IN NEW YORK GETS WARM

Henry George, Jr., Takes a Hand---Recalls Old Story of His Father's Candidacy.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Taken from the graveyard of forgotten campaigns, the political skeleton, covered with the dust of twenty-three years, was brought forth and rattled in New York tonight, adding intensely in the three-cornered struggle for the mayoralty of Greater New York, a nomination sought by William J. Gaynor, Democrat; William R. Hearst, Independent; and Otto T. Bannard, Republican. It had to do with the political record of William M. Ivins, Hearst's opponent four years ago.

The new twist in affairs came in the form of a statement issued last night by Henry George, Jr., son and biographer of the famous single-tax reformer, who charges in effect, that he went to his father in 1886 to place him to withdraw from the mayoralty race against William R. Hearst. As a matter of history George refused to be side-tracked and entered a contest only to meet defeat.

Mr. George referred to a statement in his biography of his father having been made by the latter before his death. It read:

"Before my nomination had formed taken place in 1886, I received a request from Mr. William M. Ivins, chamberlain of the city, and a personal friend and representative of Mr. George, to privately meet him. I did so, at Selghortner's, on Fayette place; we sat down in a state room, unattended, and smoked cigars together. Mr. Ivins insisted that I could not possibly be elected mayor of New York, no matter how many people might vote for me; that the men who voted knew nothing of the real forces that dominated New York. He said that I could not possibly be counted in. He offered on behalf of Tammany Hall and the county Democracy that if I would refuse the nomination for mayor they would run me for Congress, select a city district in which nomination was equivalent to election; that I should be at no expense whatever, but might go to Europe or anywhere I willed and when I came back should receive a certificate of election to the House of Representatives. I said to him finally: 'You tell me I cannot possibly get the office. Why then if I cannot possibly get the office, do you want me to withdraw?' His reply was: 'You cannot get elected but your running will raise hell.' I said: 'You have relieved me of embarrassment. I do not want the responsibility and the work of the office of mayor of New York, but I do want to raise hell. I am decided and will run.'"

Mr. Ivins in reply issued a statement last night in which he said:

"In 1897, I denied that I had ever offered Mr. George a nomination in behalf of Tammany Hall, and I also denied that any such conversation as that here given took place between us; I still deny it. Mr. George is dead, and I care to say nothing further of the matter. Even the courts will not permit one to testify to a conversation with parties deceased.

"It will be noted that Mr. George does not repeat the accusation which was made yesterday that I attempted to bribe his father."

President Will Have Big Time on Brother's Ranch

DALLAS, Texas, Oct. 19.—President Taft will remain in Texas until October 24th, paying visits to San Antonio, Houston and Dallas. He will spend four days on his brother's ranch, La Quinta, near Gregory. For his reception, and he will be golfing, hunting, fishing and a few of his brother's fine cattle. It will be a fine opportunity for the President to recuperate from the rigors of his long trip. He is to have real seclusion, as only a few members of the party will accompany him, and the newspaper men have their headquarters several miles from the ranch. The only communication will be the private telephone and the telephone. The construction of the golf links was the great puzzle for Mr. Green, superintendent of the ranch. The Scotch proved an unknown quantity. Mr. Green brought on the amateur champion of Texas, Robert H. H. Austin, and another expert, Frank M. Lewis of San Antonio, to decide where the President should play golf. The experts now have declared the links to be fit.

The President will hunt wildcats. Mr. Green scoured Texas and got a pack of celebrated hounds noted for their fighting qualities. The President will have this thrilling hunting both during daylight hours and after dark. But he will not have to hunt on horseback. Several large automobiles recently reached the Taft ranch, and the President is expected to go on the chase in these. Some of the cowboys down there no longer shy at an automobile, and one or two of these will always be with the President to show him how to tree the cats and then finish them. Then there are lots of the "Billy Possums" on the Taft ranch. Because the President is partially responsible for bringing that animal into the limelight, the men on the Taft ranch naturally want him to enter the chase and land at least one. The 'possums down there are reported to be fat, and the President stands a good chance of getting more "possum and taters."

Spanish Embassy Moved Upon By Mob With Red Flag

LONDON, Oct. 18.—The red flag raised in London Sunday afternoon and a large mob moved upon the Spanish embassy to make a demonstration of its disapproval of the execution of Prof. Francisco Ferrer, convicted revolutionist, at Barcelona a few days ago.

Small bodies of police drove off the mob. While no blood was shed, considerable excitement and unrest pervaded the neighborhood. The mob and the embassy and at Buckingham Palace nearby.

The trouble began with a mass demonstration in Trafalgar square, which was organized by several Socialist and Labor parties. A red banner was raised with big letters that could be read from afar: "To hell with the murderer Alfonso."

A telegram was read from the Countess of Warwick saying: "No words are too strong to express Europe's horror at the murder of Ferrer."

Victor Grayson of Manchester, the Socialist member, capped the climax of the speeches by declaring that if the head of every king of Europe was torn from his body it would not pay half the price of Ferrer's life. He called the Russian emperor "a dirty monster," and said that King Edward, who could have prevented the execution, was responsible for whatever might happen in England as a result of it. He demanded the expulsion of the Spanish ambassador.

DELL WINS BY 62 MAJORITY TUESDAY

ONLY ABOUT HALF OF THE FULL VOTE CAST.

Thirty-Four of the Ballots Were Spoiled and Thrown Out of Count.

From Wednesday's Daily Sun:

The special city election called for the purpose of filling the vacancy of marshal, owing to the resignation of B. T. Arnow, passed over rather quietly, very little interest being displayed by either of the candidates until late in the afternoon, when both them and their friends began to work hard for votes and rally their supporters to the polls.

C. M. Dell, who has held the position of street superintendent for the past number of months, was the successful candidate, receiving a majority of 62 votes over his opponent and the present incumbent, H. L. Owens.

There were in all 400 votes cast and the result was as follows: C. M. Dell 214, H. L. Owens 152, with 34 spoiled ballots in the box.

Less interest was taken in this election than any other ever held in the city, outside of an election for trustees, and the small vote cast is attributed to the lack of interest manifested.

The race was one wherein no mudslinging or disagreeable features were used, and this fact was highly appreciated by the citizens.

NEW DESK INSTALLED.

Commissioners Make Additional Improvement in Vault.

The County Commissioners have made additional improvements in the county vault by having a sheet iron desk placed in there to take the place of the table that has occupied the room since it was built.

In this new desk-table every available space has been taken up, and it was designed and made especially to take care of the county tax books, which are much larger and more cumbersome than the usual book. Some thirty of these compartments are fixed for each two tiers, and in all the new piece of furniture is a great addition to the room. Besides, it will take care of the books better and at the same time afford the commissioners a better desk for their use when they are in session.

The handsome cover for all of the steel work is of hard wood and slopes just the least to make it advantageous in writing and the easy handling of books.

In the wet and dry election held in Clay county last week the "drys" were victorious by an increased majority over the vote of two years ago.

MONEY BACK.

J. W. McCollum & Co. Sell a Remedy for Catarrh on That Liberal Basis.

Breathe Hyomel over the germ-ridden membrane, and it will kill the germs, and cure catarrh.

There is no other way—you must get where the germs are before you can destroy them.

And when catarrh germs have disappeared, other things will happen; there will be no more hawking, not even in the morning; that offensive breath will disappear; there will be no more obnoxious mucous, or coughing, or sneezing, or huskiness of voice, or difficulty in breathing. All these disagreeable accessories of the demon catarrh will disappear, and as they go the glow of health will return, and all the strength and energy that was formerly used in combating the inroads of catarrh, will bring back your vitality and ambition, will make a new, healthy, happy being of you in a few weeks.

J. W. McCollum & Co. will sell you a complete Hyomel outfit for $1.00. This includes a fine inhaler, a bottle of Hyomel (pronounced High-o-mel), and instructions for use. Sold by leading druggists everywhere. Extra bottles 50 cents. And bear in mind, money back if Hyomel doesn't cure.

MI-ONA Cures Indigestion

It relieves stomach misery, sour stomach, belching, and cures all stomach diseases or money back. Large box of tablets 50 cents. Druggists in all towns.

Try This in November.

Thousands upon thousands of families who have not been regular eaters of Quaker Oats will begin on the first of November and eat Quaker Oats once or twice every day for thirty days of this month; the result in good health and more strength and vigor will mean that every other month in the year will find them doing the same thing.

Try it! Serve Quaker Oats plentifully and frequently for the thirty days of November and leave off a corresponding amount of meat and greasy foods. You'll get more health, more vigor and strength than you ever got in thirty days of any other kind of eating.

While you are trying this see that the children get a full share.

The best food for them. Quaker Oats is also packed in hermetically sealed tins for hot climates; keeps indefinitely.

A. C. L. TICKET OFFICE NOW BEING CHANGED

FORCE OF CARPENTERS AND WORKMEN ENGAGED.

Both Passenger Rooms to Be Enlarged and Toilets Placed in the New Building.

Work on the changes to be made in the ticket office and waiting rooms of the Atlantic Coast Line depot will be started this morning by Foreman Myers and his crew of carpenters who arrived Tuesday for the purpose.

The entire front of the building is to be changed and overhauled and the front part of the rooms will be made larger, making more and better room for the passengers who are compelled to wait over in this city any length of time.

The ticket office is to be moved to the center in front of the present room, which will extend deeper into the freight building some fifteen or twenty feet, and will be cut in half, making two large and separate rooms for the accommodation of passengers.

A number of toilets will also be installed in the building on either side for the accommodation of passengers, and the rooms will have two doors, one from the side and one from the front, making them much more easy of access and egress and more to the needs of the public.

The large baggage room will be in the rear, as it is at present, and with the number of other smaller changes that are to be made it is hoped to meet the requirements of the citizens and traveling public for some time to come.

Catarrh Cannot Be Cured

with local applications, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing catarrh. Send for testimonials free.

les R. Carter were in the city from Micanopy yesterday, and spent the day with relatives.

Among the prominent visitors to Gainesville yesterday was J. F. Barron, postmaster, merchant and all-round hustler of Evinston.

D. E. Godwin of Kanapaha was in the city yesterday. He was en route from High Springs, where he has been on a brief visit to his family.

Mr. and Mrs. William Goolsby, well-known people of Montecocha, were among those who favored the county capital with a visit yesterday.

Mac Kennedy of High Springs, one of the valued employees of the roadway department of the Atlantic Coast Line, was among those who spent yesterday in this city.

A. M. Cushman, Col. I. E. Webster and George Davenport made a trip to Newberry Tuesday in the former's Black, and enjoyed the ride immensely. The party left here at 8:45 a. m. returning a few minutes before noon.

John F. Seagle is at home again, after a couple of months spent in Atlanta, and points in Arkansas. Friends of Mr. Seagle will regret to learn that he has been in ill health during the summer, and went with the hope that the change would prove beneficial.

Friends of Mrs. S. H. Hall, who has been quite ill at her home on North Garden street for the past few days, will regret to learn that her recovery is not as rapid as was expected, but it is hoped that she will continue to improve until she has regained her normal health.

L. W. Fennell, after a brief visit to this city, where he came to cast his ballot in the special municipal election Tuesday, returned to Hawthorn yesterday. Mr. Fennell's numerous friends will be glad to learn that his health is better now than for some time.

W. M. VanSickel of Eaton, Ga., has arrived in the city. Mr. VanSickel is a photographer, and if a suitable building can be secured here he proposes to make his future home in Gainesville, which he declares to be one of the best little cities he has ever visited. His family will arrive in a few days.

Roland R. Duke, a well-known young man of Santa Fe, was in the city yesterday, having come to consult Dr. Alderman in regard to some dental work. He is a son of Hon. T. A. Duke, for many years a member of the school board, and last term a representative in the lower house of Florida Legislature from Alachua county.

Deputy Sheriff Wynne of Newberry was in the city yesterday, having come to bring Lillie Belle Johnson, a negro woman convicted in Justice Carter's court upon a charge of malicious mischief, and sentenced to four months in the "gang." The woman took away and rode a horse belonging to Joe Kennedy, another negro, without the owner's permission, and it was for this that the warrant was sworn out against her.

Among the prominent out-of-town folks who spent yesterday in this city was W. A. Strickland of Paradise, who owns and operates one of the most successful farms in the county. Mr. Strickland states that he will begin his annual cane-grinding about November 20th. The crop will fall a little short this season, but he declares that this will not prevent his friends coming out and "filling up" on juice, and he extends all an invitation. Mr. Strickland is master of one of the most hospitable homes in the county, and an invitation to his house means an invitation for a good time.

Had a Picnic.

The "overflow" pupils of the sixth and eighth grades, Gainesville Graded and High School, participated in an enjoyable ride to Hogtown creek yesterday afternoon, being chaperoned by Miss Kate Tomkies, one of the efficient teachers.

There were quite a number, and all who went report "a great big time." Miss Tomkies is quite a favorite among the pupils.

Arrested for Concealed Weapons.

Deputy Sheriff Bruton made a short trip to Kanapaha Tuesday for the purpose of arresting and bringing back to this city a negro by the name of Joe Lumpkin. The negro is wanted in Starke on a charge of carrying concealed weapons, and Deputy Sheriff Jerry Willis left for that point on the afternoon train with the prisoner.

WEDDING AT BATESBURG.

Dr. Guy Mixson, of Florida, Weds Miss Theora Bodie.

The following account of the marriage of Dr. G. C. Mixson of this city to a popular young lady of South Carolina is taken from a paper published in that State:

"Batesburg, Oct. 17.—Special: On Tuesday, at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Bodie, the marriage bells rang out sweetly in honor of Dr. Guy Mixson of Gainesville, Fla., and Miss Theora Bodie, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Bodie. The bride was handsomely gowned in a cream messaline satin, with Irish point trimmings, and she never looked more beautiful than on this auspicious occasion. She and the groom stood under a beautiful bell made of lovely flowers as they plighted their vows, in the presence of the large assemblage, who had come from near and far to do them honor. The Rev. S. O. Canty, the bride's pastor, made them man and wife, and used the beautiful ceremony of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Mr. R. F. Stokes of Newberry, Fla., acted as best man, while Miss Earline Bodie, sister of the bride, acted as maid of honor. In addition to the maid of honor, the happy couple were attended by Miss Hassie Smith of Micanopy, Fla., and Mr. Elize Lagrone of Johnston, S. C. After the ceremony refreshments were served the guests by the following young ladies: Misses Ethel Godman, Nellie Wright, Estelle and Lillie Bushardt, Patra Wright, Lizzie Riley, Rosa Ridgell and Bessie Steadman. "The bride is one of the most popular and petite young ladies of Batesburg, and the groom should feel happy in gaining such a jewel for a life partner.

"Dr. Mixson, the groom, is a native of Gainesville, Fla., and is a rising young dentist of that prosperous city.

The Sternbergs Return.

Mrs. S. Sternberg and children, Misses Katie and Pearl, and Masters Abraham and George, arrived in the city yesterday to join Mr. Sternberg, who has been here for several days. They come direct from New York, where they have resided since leaving here about three years ago.

Mr. Sternberg was for several years engaged in the mercantile business here, later removing to New York, where he entered the manufacture of ladies' skirts. He has returned to his "first love," however, and says he will be content to stand behind the counter on Wall street, where he has again opened, and enjoy the friendship of the people of Gainesville and Alachua county for the remainder of his life. Friends are glad to welcome the family back again.

WILCOX ITEMS.

WILCOX, Oct. 19.—W. J. Wilson's mother and sister of Alachua visited him this week.

Mrs. Arthur Chouse is visiting her father, D. T. Trammell. Miss Iva's many friends were pleased to see her.

Mr. Brown, representing the Brown-Jenings Hardware Co. of Gainesville, was here this week looking after some business.

Dr. W. L. Lancaster made a business trip to Bell and Branford this week. He reports the farmers and merchants well pleased with the business prospects.

We would like to see one of "Dukes' Drizzles," or that is, a gentle shower without combination of cyclone or hail, as the gardens and hogs are not doing very well on account of the drought.

Midnight Doctors

are the most unwelcome visitors—even the doctor himself curses the luck that compelled him to leave his comfortable bed. Suppose you try our method, and keep a big 35c bottle of Perry Davis' Painkiller in the house, and let the doctor stay in bed and enjoy himself.
